Ms. Shirley Berry
5 Possum Hollow Road
Newark, DE 19711

Dear Ms. Berry,

Enclosed please find information relating to the Eyler/Oyler/Iler, etc. family. One of our volunteers, Don Wolf, has been doing extensive research on the family since he is descended from it on both sides. Unfortunately, he cannot locate his documentation so he is going to have to go back and redo all his research. He said you could contact him if you would like to see copies of what he finds. His address is 6905 Balsam Court, Frederick MD 21701-7146, and his telephone number is 301/695-1052.

He gave me a brief outline of the family from memory. There were two Israels, uncle and nephew. The first immigrant was Conrad, who had two sons, Jacob and Valentine. Jacob's line leads to the two Israels. Jacob's son Peter had two sons, John and Israel. This Israel was born in Eyler's Valley and married Margaret Ferguson who was from Fountaindale, which is just outside of Eyler Valley. Israel was an educated man who moved up into Adams County, PA and became the first schoolteacher of Mt. Hope, PA. He had three sons and three daughters: Wilson, a Civil War veteran; Albert, who was killed during the Civil War; and Reverend Daniel, who lived in Fountaindale. Two of the girls were Annie, who never married, and Mary who married John Sites. Don couldn't remember the name of the third daughter.

Israel's brother John, who was born in 1792, had at least three sons, Israel, Jacob and Alfred. This Israel was born January 1, 1832, and married Elmira Grimes (Alfred married her sister). The record of their burial is enclosed. I am not certain which Israel is your ancestor.

I have also enclosed a description of the Eyler Valley area. You could also try the Adams County Historical Society at Samuel Simon Schmucker Hall, Box 4325, Gettysburg, PA 17325.

We usually charge twenty-five cents a page for photocopies, but any donation you would care to make would be greatly appreciated.

family is elaborately carved and surmounted by a cross. The Russell family monument is a tall granite shaft; on the panels at the base are the names of the family. A handsome monument of granite, polished and carved and surmounted by a draped urn, marks the grave of Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Goheen, who died Nov. 27, 1857, aged 73, having been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty-four years. The grave of F. Dorsey Herbert is also marked by a fine marble monument. A monument erected by Potomac Lodge, No. 31, I. O. O. F., bears the inscription, "To Our Dead," and is decorated with emblems of the order on the panels. Another monument is dedicated to the memory of Charles E., son of John Gale, who was murdered by a mob "while in the fearless discharge of his duty as a member of the Hagerstown police force, Oct. 20, 1866, aged 24 years."

the battle-fields in this section, and the commission appointed selected a portion of Rose Hill as the most suitable place. The removals began in September, 1872. On Feb. 28, 1877, a beautiful monument was erected by the managers of the cemetery and dedicated to the Confederate dead. The body of the monument is of Scotch granite of Aberdeen, of a beautiful brown, dappled with varied hues; the base is a solid, heavy stone of American granite from Richmond; upon the top is a marble figure more than five feet in height, representing Hope leaning upon her anchor, with flowing robes, and upon her brow is set a star (perhaps the "single star of the Confederacy"). Upon the front of the die facing the cemetery is the inscription, "The STATE OF MARYLAND has provided this cemetery and erected this monument to perpetuate the memory of the Confederate dead who fell in the battles of Antietam and South Mountain." On the right side we read, "The State of Virginia has contributed toward the burial of her dead within this cemetery," and on the left the same of West Virginia.

On Tuesday, the 15th of June, 1877, the Washington Confederate Cemetery, near Hagerstown, was dedicated and decorated for the first time. The weather was very fine, and there was an immense concourse of people within the grounds. The arrangements were under the direction of Col. H. Kyd Douglas, president of the board of trustees of the cemetery, seconded by Mr. P. A. Witmer. The first arrival occurred about eight o'clock in the morning, when a train from Martinsburg, via the Cumberland Valley road, reached Hagerstown with over six hundred excursionists. Among these was Capt. Charles J. Faulkner's company of the Berkeley Light Infantry, numbering eighty men. About the same time the two regular trains of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad came in, bringing about two hundred people from the lower districts of the county. At half-past eight o'clock a delegation from Shepherdstown, headed by Col. W. A. Morgan, trustee of the cemetery on behalf of West Virginia, and accompanied by the Shepherdstown Cornet Band, arrived on the scene, and shortly before noon a special car of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bearing Gen. Fitzhugh Lee reached Hagerstown, and was met by Maj. George Freaner, Col. H. Kyd Douglas, and Dr. A. S. Mason, who conducted Gen. Lee to Maj. Freaner's residence, where he was entertained. Maj. Freaner had been a member of Gen. Lee's staff during the war. At noon a train arrived from Baltimore, via the Western Maryland Railroad, and soon after two trains of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad came in, one of them from Washington, and the other from Baltimore. The excursionists from Frederick returned home on learning of a railroad accident which had occurred at Point of Rocks. Among them was James Gambrell, one of the trustees of the cemetery. In Hagerstown the day was universally given up to the celebration. Many of the citizens kept open house and invited persons to lunch or dine with them. Although it was Tuesday, the county "public day," very little business was transacted. It is thought that at least six thousand people visited the cemetery during the day, and that there were five thousand present at one time.

At two o'clock P.M. the procession formed in the EDWARD ROSS EYLER, a prominent farmer residing on the Eyer homestead, in Eyer's Valley, Mechanicstown District, Frederick County, Md., son of Ex-Commissioner Charles A. and Charlotte (Gurley) Eyer, was born on the homestead, now his property, September 7, 1885.

7431 Frederick Eyer, grandfather of Edward Ross Eyer, was born in Switzerland, April 9, 1776. In early manhood, he and a brother came to America and settled in the northern part of Frederick County, Md. where he purchased a large tract of farm and timber land, and named the place of settlement Eyer's Valley. A part of this land is still in the family, the property of this grandson, Thomas Eyer. Mr. Eyer worked hard and was rewarded by success. On his share of the land, he built a dwelling, a barn and all necessary out-buildings and improved his land until the wild land had become a fair garden. Mr. Eyer became a prosperous farmer and a highly respected citizen. He was a Democrat. Frederick Eyer was married Dec. 15, 1809 to Margaret Williar, who was born Sept. 11, 1783. Their children are: 1, _____ who died in childhood; 2, J. Frederick, deceased, a farmer of Mechanicstown District; 3, Caroline, deceased, married to the late Robert Clugston of Waynesboro, Pa.; 4, Maria, deceased, married to the late John Benohoff of Hagerstown Md.; 5, Jane E., deceased, married to the late Samuel M. Diffendall of Mechanicstown District; 6, William, deceased; 7, Charles A.; 8, Rebecca, widow of the late Mr. Favorite of Graceham, Md.; 9, Mary J., deceased, married to Boyd Bowden of Cumberland, Md. Mr. Eyer and his wife were members of the United Brethren church. They died at their home in Eyer's Valley.

7441 Charles A. Eyer, Ex-County Commissioner of Frederick County, father of Edward Ross Eyer, was born on the old homestead in Eyer's Valley, Mechanicstown District, August 30, 1818. He was educated in the public schools of Mechanicstown District, and remained with his father on the home farm. After the death of his father, Mr. Eyer and his brother, Frederick, bought from two to three hundred acres of the homestead which they cultivated together until the death of Frederick when Mr. Eyer became sole owner of the property. The location of the farm is beautiful, and Mr. Eyer's intelligent cultivation and improvements made it one of the desirable farms of the district. Mr. Eyer was a Democrat. He was nominated his party for County Commissioner of Frederick County, and carried the county by large majority. He discharged the duties of his office promptly and efficiently giving satisfaction to all. He was a prosperous farmer, and an honored citizen of Frederick County. Charles A. Eyer was married October 29, 1857 to Charlotte L. daughter of Thomas Gurley who was a prominent citizen of Cumberland, Md. Of the eight children, five reached adult age: 1, Thomas F., a merchant of Sabillasville Md.; 2, Ellen I., widow of Albert Colliflower, of Graceham, Md.; 3, Emma C., widow of John C. Fisor of Graceham; 4, Edward Ross; 5, Charles R., a farmer of Mechanicstown District. Mr. Eyer and his wife were members of the United Brethren Church of Eyer's Valley. He was one of the most active workers in the church, and held office for many years. He always contributed liberally to benevolent objects. Eyer ~~xxxxxxx~~ who was born Feb. 20, 1835 died Oct. 18, 1879. Mr. Eyer died at his home in Eyer's Valley, January 21, 1901 and was buried beside his wife in the cemetery of the United Brethren Church in Thurmont, Md.

Edward Ross Eyer was educated in the public schools of Mechanicstown District and remained on the home farm assisting his father. After his father's death, N Eyler cultivated the land for a few years, and then purchased from the estate, 183 acres of farm and timber land. His property is beautifully situated in the very heart of Eyler's Valley, five miles north of Thurmont, Md. Besides putting up a two-story frame dwelling, a bank barn and the necessary out-buildings, Mr. Eyler has greatly improved the quality of the land. His hard work and constant attention to his business, have made him a prosperous man and the owner of one of the desirable farms of the district. Mr. Eyler is a Democrat, actively interested in all that concerns the improvement of the county.

Edward Ross Eyler was married to Mary, daughter of Josiah and Ann Eliza (Homes) Wetzel, whose father was a prominent farmer of Emmitsburg District, Frederick County. Their children are: 1, Key Margaret, at school; 2, Lule M., at school; 3, Charles F.; 4, Raymond E.; 5, Gordon I.; all at home. Mr. Eyler and his wife are members of the United Brethren Church in Eyler's Valley. They are active workers in the church and contribute liberally to church finances. Mr. Eyler is superintendent of the Sunday School.

The fair-grounds are eligibly and beautifully located some three-eighths of a mile east of Frederick City, and comprise in utility and beauty everything necessary to promote the accommodation and pleasure of visitors.

To the active agency and energetic labors of Dr. Fairfax Schley, more than to any other person, is due the great success of the Frederick County Agricultural Society in the last few years. With his administration began a new era in the history of the society. In the midst of all his business engagements he has devoted much time and given great attention to its affairs, until now it is one of the most successful agricultural societies in the country.

Although retired from active medical practice since the year 1855, Fairfax Schley, of Frederick City, is still best known as Dr. Schley. His great-great-grand-father, Thomas Schley, came from the Palatinate, in Germany, about 1740, and in 1745 erected the first house upon the site of what is now Frederick City. One of his sons, Jacob Schley, was a captain in the Revolution. One of Thomas Schley's grandsons was William Schley, member of Congress and Governor

The first settlement in this district was made about the year 1758 or '59, by a Swiss colony in the southwest portion of Harbaugh's Valley, in the neighborhood of what is now called "Hauver's." It is a national instinct of the Swiss to love mountainous regions. Swiss soldiers, it is said, have died of homesickness for their Alps, and Swiss immigrants nearly always seek the more elevated lands. Hence the first Swiss pioneers in Frederick County passed by the fertile valleys and sought the lands on the sides of the Catoctin Mountains. The next settlers were the Harbaughs, in 1760 and '61. All this region was then a wilderness, for Frederick Town had only been laid out fifteen years before, and five years previous Chambersburg, Pa., was a small town on the outskirts of civilization. The whole country between Chambersburg and Frederick, including Conococheague Valley, showed but here and there a small settlement. Rev. Michael Schlatter, who passed from Frederick to the above valley in 1748, speaks of all the region west of the South Mountain as presenting nothing but regions of grass, hazel-bushes, shrubbery, and crab-apple trees, and says the whole country was called "the barrens." Indians were still there, but friendly when they were not drunk. When George Harbaugh, the first settler, removed to the valley, which took its name from him, there was as yet no road in existence through it. The immigrants had to unload their effects and leave their wagons at the eastern end of the valley, where they made arrangements to convey their effects to the place of destination on sleds, and partly on pack-horses. The first of the noted family of Harbaugh to settle in America was Yost Harbaugh, a native of Switzerland. He arrived in 1736, and settled first in Maxatawny, a valley of Berks County, Pa., but about 1743 removed to the new settlement of Kreutz Creek, west of the Susquehanna. He died in April, 1762. He was twice married, and his children were as follows: By his first wife, George, Ludwig, Jacob, John, Henry, Yost; and by his second wife (named "Mary Liz" in his will), Leonard, Mary Elizabeth, Ann Margaret, and Ann Catherine. The emigrant, Yost Harbaugh, was a member of the German Reformed Church, and married his second wife in Pennsylvania in 1746. Of the above children, George Harbaugh was the first of the three brothers that removed to the valley. He was born in Switzerland in 1727, and came down from York County, Pa., to the valley in 1760 or '61, about the time of the establishment of "Mason and Dixon's line," which ended the disputes that so seriously interfered with the early settlers. He became a Moravian in his religious profession, which was perhaps occasioned from the comparative nearness of the Moravian settlement at Graceham. He came to his death by accidental drowning, somewhere in the head-waters of the Falls Creek, near the foot of what is called Mount Misery. His children were George, John, Anna Regina, Elizabeth, and a little daughter who, at the age of six years, was accidentally killed by the discharge of a gun. Of these children, George lived a while on the old homestead, and then removed to Bedford County, Pa. This George had a son, Jacob, a lame man, who kept tavern in Sabillasville; John lived at what is now Schultz's mill, and later went to Ohio; Anna Regina married a Mr. Eyler, resided in Eyler's Valley, and died in 1849, aged ninety-two years, and is buried at Graceham; Elizabeth married a Mr. Fetter, of Bethlehem, Pa. Ludwig, the second son of Yost Harbaugh, and the second Harbaugh to settle in the valley, was born in Switzerland in 1728. After his marriage he removed from York County, Pa., to near Weller's mill, just east of Mechanicstown. From thence he removed to Middletown Valley, where his first son, Christian, was born Jan. 14, 1753. Afterwards, about 1761, he removed to Harbaugh's Valley, and settled on the farm not far from and southwest of Sabillasville, formerly Zollinger's, but in 1856 owned by John Harbaugh, of Christian. Ludwig died Aug. 9, 1809, aged eighty-two years, and was buried in the graveyard on his own farm. His wife, Christiana; died Oct. 17, 1797, aged seventy years.

Their descendants were numerous. Of their children, Christian lived a short distance west of Sabillasville, and died March 23, 1836, aged eighty-three. He was buried at Graceham, and left one hundred and thirty children and grandchildren. He was a Moravian, as was his wife, a Miss Williard. Christian had ten children, Peter, Christian, John (a noted tanner), who lived on a farm south of Sabillasville owned by his grandfather Ludwig; Elias, Henry, who lived on the old homestead near Sabillasville; Alexander, Solomon, Elizabeth, Mary, Rebecca, Charlotte, who married a Mr. Willman and lived in Sabillasville, and Sabina. Ludwig's second son was Jacob Harbaugh, who lived on the top of the mountain northwest of Sabillasville. He was called "Mountain Jacob." His first wife was the widow of a Mr. Winters, her maiden name being Casebeer. She was married to Jacob Harbaugh. They both died in their ninety-second year, left no offspring, and are buried on their homestead. The third son, Henry, married on the Monocacy, and removed to near Lexington, Ky. The fourth son, Peter, was unmarried, and was accidentally drowned in a branch of the Monocacy. He was on the eve of being married, and on arriving at the creek

The United Brethren (Weller's) Church was organized in 1831, and on December 11th of that year the church edifice was consecrated. It was erected upon ground presented by Jacob Weller, who was born at Mechanicstown, Jan. 25, 1775, and died May 6, 1846. His first wife, Anna Margaret, was born Oct. 22, 1780, and his second, Mary Love, Sept. 8, 1795. Before the meeting-house was finished preaching was had in the old school-house. The first trustees were Jacob Weller, George Stokes, Henry Kemp, to whom, a few years later, were added Frederick Rider, Jacob Martin, and Reuben Osler. Its pastors have been Revs. Nelson, Glossbrenner, William Brown, Winnebrenner, Isaac, George, and John Statton, W. T. Lower, Isaiah Baltzell, John Sand, William Knott, George Rymel, Bishop Markwood, Jacob Bastell, Gibbons, Matthews, McCabe, Darkies, J. D. Freed, Funk, Kneidick, William Evers, John W. Grimm (1861-65), C. I. B. Branc (1874-76), J. P. Funk (1876-77), J. D. Freed (1877-81), and Rev. Wein (1881), the present incumbent. This church is in a highly prosperous condition.

In 1859, on Whit-Monday, the beautiful Catholic church, situated on a commanding elevation near the railroad, was dedicated. The congregation is large, and the church flourishing. Its pastor up to 1880 was Rev. H. A. McMurdie, whose labors terminated that year by his decease.

The Methodist Episcopal Church organization was perfected in 1849, previous to which time services had been held in the school-house nearly opposite. The present edifice was erected in 1850, by Rev. B. C. Flowers, who, with Andrew Sefton and Tuisco Marlow, were three of the trustees. Its corner-stone was laid by Rev. S. S. Rozell, and the dedication sermon was preached by Rev. Henry Slicer.

In 1849 the presiding elder was Alfred Griffiths, and the preachers in charge Revs. John A. Henning and J. R. Debrow. In 1850 the pastors were Revs. George Brooke and J. R. Debrow, and in 1881, Rev. W. O. Eldridge, whose predecessor was H. P. West.

In 1861-62 a paper made its appearance in Mechanicstown called the Family Visitor, published by Isaiah Wolfersburger. It was tinctured with "secession" proclivities at the commencement of the civil war, and the paper was suppressed by the Union men of the town. The same gentleman afterwards published a Republican paper at Elliott City, in Howard County, called the American Progress.

Societies.—In the summer of 1871, Grand Master Latrobe granted a dispensation to form a Masonic lodge at Mechanicstown. On Nov. 20, 1871, Grand Lodge granted a charter to Acacia Lodge 155. The officers in 1879 were:

W. M., D. C. Martin; S. W., Cost J. Carmack; J. W., H. Rouzer; Sec., Van B. Osler; Treas., Geo. W. Sdale.

Good Samaritan Lodge, No. 46, I. O. O. F. instituted at Emmittsburg, Oct. 23, 1845. Its charter members were George Zollinger, Peter Stein, Burk, John B. Picking, and Lewis Colliflower. It was moved to Mechanicstown in 1849. The hall was erected and completed Aug. 10, 1848. The building was occupied as a seminary, in which Sidney Harkey taught. The lodge rented the hall until 1870, when by a special act of the Legislature it was empowered to purchase the building.

The first officers were:

N. G., J. G. Picking; V. G., J. Burke; Treas., Mr. Wilty; Joseph Abrams.

The officers for the term ending December, 1879 were:

N. G., Wm. Stix; V. G., Joshua Herring; Sec., John Lan; Treas., Van B. Osler.

Number of members, 70; accumulated funds, $1,000 and value of property, $2000.

Knights of Pythias Lodge, No. 67, was instituted June 2, 1871. Charter members, A. A. Moore, L. Suader, Dr. Wm. White, F. M. Uhler, Thos. Shaw, Emory Hubbard, S. R. Moore, M. A. Willard, J. Youson, J. H. Rouzer, Frederick White, J. Davidson, E. Baxter, J. L. King, J. S. Martin, H. Willard, J. Eyler, J. W. Loy.

Its first officers were:

C. C., A. A. Moore; V. C., Dr. Wm. White; Prel., F. M. U. M. A., J. H. Rouzer; K. R. S., E. L. Suader; M. L. A. Moore; M. Exch., J. W. Davidson; I. G., Thos. Shaw; O. G., M. A. Willard.

Officers for term ending June, 1881:

C. C., Wm. H. Stull; V. C., T. N. Eyler; Prel., E. M. Su. M. A., G. W. Stimmel; K. R. S., C. Harman; M. L. A., John H. Rouzer; M. Exch., E. N. Cover; I. G., Miller; O. G., Horatio Fogle; P. C., Wm. H. Damm; Representative to Grand Lodge, John H. Rouzer.

The lodge meets in I. O. O. F. Hall every Friday evening. Number of members, 28; accumulated funds, $731.94.

Physicians.—The first resident physicians were Drs. Alexander Goldsborough and John Rest. The latter was a surgeon in Bonaparte's army, after the battle of Waterloo came to America. They were followed by Dr. E. Lincoln Brown. From 1845 to 1850 Drs. E. T. Curry and J. M. Geyer were in partnership. Dr. Joseph Biggs, who practiced here sev-

Rocky Ridge, Monocacy Church of the Brethren (v1-p16). (494 names. 1955)
 Rocky Ridge, Mt. Tabor Church (v1-p2). One of the few remaining Union churches in the County with alternate Lutheran and Reformed services. (340 names. 1955)
 Rocky Springs Cemetery (v4 - p29). Also known to old-timers as Doubts or Cronise cemetery. Now incorporated. Lies adjacent to Peter Kemp homestead where on 25 Sept. 1800 the Church of the United Brethren in Christ was formed. (350 names. 1951)
 Rocky Springs, Kemp Family cemetery (v5-p37). Since copied by Joseph H. Holdcraft, stones have been reset in Mt. Olivet and road now covers site. (4 names. 1956)
 Sabillasville, Harbaugh Family cemetery (v5-p4). East of village and a bit south of Md. Rt. #81. Has been cleaned up and fenced since copied. (34 names. 1957)
 Sabillasville, Otterbein Chapel United Brethren Cemetery. Difficult of access. Building has been razed but graves show evidences of care. (71 names. 1958)
 Sabillasville, St. John's Reformed Church. (332 names. 1955)
 Sabillasville, United Brethren Cemetery. (v5-p33). Lies across road from old village school. No building here. Was once semi-abandoned but now is kept mowed and clean. H. J. Young (see Bibliography) made inscriptions here in 1936. (22 names. 1957 and 1965)
 St. Anthony, old Mt. St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery. St. Mary's Church at the cemetery was abandoned in 1900 and congregation became known as St. Anthony's. Lies high on mountain behind the college and near a much-visited shrine and carillon. (925 names. 1957)
 St. Anthony, Elder Family cemetery (v5-p11). East of Motters Station Road. In the wire-fenced lot a marker reads: "Nearby was erected by William Elder, Senior, the first altar to the living God in what is now known as Mount St. Mary's, Emmitsburg and Mechanicstown (Thurmont) congregations about the year 1745. This stone was erected by his descendants after his death." (9 names. 1956)
 St. Jacob's Church, Upper Harbaugh Valley. In Adams County, Pennsylvania, near Fountindale. Church is opened on occasion for the annual Harbaugh reunion. Cemetery is well kept. (244 names. 1958)

 Sandy Hook, Virts Cemetery. U.S. Hgwy. #340 in Washington County. Originally a family graveyard for the Miller-Elgin families (still in their iron-fenced enclosure), located on old homestead on the present Virts farm. When the old Sandy Hook cemetery behind Hoffman's store (cf. above) fell into disuse, burials began beside the family plot and some bodies were reinterred there. Still in use and well maintained. Access is through the farmyard and several farm gates. The lane traverses an orchard. (41 names. 1962)
 Shookstown, Shook Family cemetery (v5-p23). North of Shookstown Road, on Kemp Lane. The high steel fence

Oak Orchard, Dudderar Family cemetery (v5-p7). South of New Windsor Road (Md. Rt. #31) at junction with McKinstry's Mill Road. In 1957 compiler found only one stone, in the barn-bank wall. But in 1930 Peter T. Dudderar, of Unionville, found 6 names on stones dumped in the woods and 12 from remaining stones later broken up and cemented into the floor of a dairy house. (20 names. 1930 and 1957)
 Oak Orchard, Ensey Family cemetery (v5-p6). Monroe Black farm on Albaugh Road. One stone and fragments at a wagon shed. (1 name. 1957)
 Park Mills, Simmons Family marker at bridge then existing but since replaced by new structure some distance away. High on bluff south of stream, west of old road. Central marker with plain unlettered stones surrounding it. (2 names. 1962)
 Petersville, St. Mary's Catholic Church. (310 names. 1959)
 Petersville, St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Gov. Thomas Sim Lee attended this church and was buried at nearby Needwood Forest, his estate, but was later reinterred in southern Maryland. A metal plaque on church front wall bears the inscription: "In memory of Thomas Sim Lee/October 29, 1745-October 9, 1819/Governor of Maryland/1779-1782--1792-1794/and of/Mary Digges/his wife/1745-1805/Original Founders of this Church." Another Governor, Francis Thomas, is buried in the adjoining cemetery. (685 names. 1958)

THE LATE THOMAS F. EYLER, who was the leading merchant of Sabillasville, Frederick County, Md., son of Ex-County Commissioner Charles A. and Charlotte L. (Gurley) Eyler, both deceased, was born on the old homestead in Eyler's Valley, Mechanicstown District, Frederick County, Md., September 17, 1858.

Frederick Eyler, grandfather of Thomas F. Eyler, was born in Switzerland, April 9, 1776. In early manhood, he and a brother came to America and settled in the northern part of Frederick County, Md., where he purchased a large tract of farm and timber land and named the place of his settlement Eyler's Valley. A part of this land is still in the family, the property of his grandson, Ross Eyler. Mr. Eyler worked hard and was rewarded by success. On his share of the land, he built a dwelling, a barn, and necessary out-buildings, and improved his land until the wild land had become a fair garden. Mr. Eyler became a prosperous farmer, and a highly respected citizen. He was a Democrat. Frederick Eyler was married Dec. 15, 1808 to Margaret Willier, who was born Sept. 11, 1783. Their children are: 1, Horatio died in childhood; 2, J. Frederick, deceased, a farmer of Mechanicstown District, Frederick County; 3, Caroline, deceased, married to the late ~~John~~ Robert Clugston, of Waynesboro, Pa.; 4, Marie, deceased, married to the late John Benchoff of Hagerstown, Md.; 5, Lizzie E., deceased, married to the late Samuel M. Diffendall of Mechanicstown District; 6, William, deceased; 7, Charles A.; 8, Rebecca, widow of the late George Favorite, of Thurmont, Md. Mr. Eyler and his wife were members of the United Brethren Church. Mr. Eyler and his wife died at their home in Eyler's Valley.

Charles A. Eyler, ex-County Commissioner of Frederick County, father of Thomas F. Eyler, was born on the old homestead in Eyler's Valley, Mechanicstown District, August 30, 1818. He was educated in the public schools of Mechanicstown District, and remained with his father on the home farm. After the death of his father, Mr. Eyler and his brother, Frederick, bought from two to three hundred acres of the homestead, which they cultivated together until the death of Frederick, when Mr. Eyler became sole owner of the property. The location of the farm is beautiful, and Mr. Eyler's intelligent cultivation and improvements have made it one of the desirable farms of the district. Mr. Eyler was a Democrat. He was nominated by his party for County Commissioner of Frederick County, and carried the county by a large majority. He discharged the duties of the office promptly and efficiently giving satisfaction to all. He was a prosperous farmer, and an honored citizen of Frederick County. Charles A. Eyler was married October 29 1857 to Charlotte L., daughter of Thomas Gurley, who was a prominent citizen of Cumberland, Md., Of their eight children, five reached adult age: 1, Thomas F., a merchant of Sabillasville, Md.; 2, Ellen H., widow of Albert Colliflower of Graceham, Md.; 3, Emma C. widow of John C. Firor of Graceham; 4, Edward Ross, a farmer of Mechanicstown District; 5, Charles R., a farmer of Mechanicstown District. Mr. Eyler and his wife were members of the United Brethren Church of Eyler's Valley. He was one of the most active workers in the church, and held office for many years. He always contributed liberally to benevolent objects. Mrs. Eyler, who was born Feb. 20, 1835, died Oct. 18, 1879. Mr. Eyler died at his home in Eyler's Valley January 21, 1901, and was buried beside his wife in the cemetery of the United Brethren Church in Thurmont, Md.

Thomas F. Eyler was educated in the public schools of his native district, and remained with his father on the homestead until the spring of 1886, when he began business for himself as general merchant in Sabillasville, Md. His good judgment in buying and his honest dealing soon established a large trade, and he became the leading business man of Sabillasville. He owned his beautiful home and the store in which he carried on his business successfully for twenty-two years. After his death his widow retired from business and rented the store. She still resides in her husband's home. Mr. Eyer was a Democrat. He was a member of Acacia Lodge No. 155, A. F. and A. M., of Thurmont, and of the Junior Order of American Mechanics, Buena Vista. He was one of the leading business men of Frederick County, and was highly esteemed as a merchant and as a citizen. He was one of the directors of the Citizens' Bank of Thurmont.

7443 Thomas F. Eyer was married to Bertha, daughter of Simon W. and Elizabeth (Smith) Harbaugh, whose father was a prominent retired farmer of Sabillasville. Her mother is living in Sabillasville. They have one child, Hazel M., at home. Mr. Eyer and his wife were members of the Lutheran Church in Sabillasville. He was a liberal contributor to the church and served the congregation as deacon and as elder for many years. He died at his home in Sabillasville, July 9, 1908, and is buried in the cemetery at Thurmont, Md.

7432 This spoon is a souvenir of my Mother's mother, Mrs Margaret Williard Eyler, wife of Frederick Eyler of Eyler's Valley. I think her father's name was Andrew Williard, a native of Eyler's Valley who lived in a log cabin. His wife and one son were in the home at the time when a thunder storm came up, which was about 125 years ago in 1816. He sent his son up into the loft to put up some boards at the gable end where they had been repairing, the lightning struck in the loft and killed his son, ran down the wall into a grandfathers clock and across the room, Father and mother were stunned and when they recovered the father went up to the loft and found his son dead. The lightning had killed him, tore his boots off and his body was limp. The father had kept thirty dollard in silver money in the clock and he found it melted into a solid mass. He took this mass to a silversmith and had it made into sm ll sterling silver teaspoons of which he gave six of them to his children.

My mother's mother, His daughter, received six of them on which are her initials (EW for Margaret Williard). I bought one of these spoons from Uncle Charles Eyler's son's wife two years ago which I prize highly and will give it to one of my relatives in memory of my Mother's family, The Williards.

EYLERs of WOODSBORO. The forbearers of William (Billy) Eyler, Woodsboro's celebrated citizen who died in 1983 at nearly 106 years, have special interest¹. His descent from Augustine Herman is shown by AH5q2c5d4c. His grandson, Dahl Drenning, gives his lineage as follows. Billy's parents were Benjamin Eyler (1842-1930) and Mary Ellen Locke (daughter of Sarah Wood) who farmed on the road from New Midway to Johnsville. Benjamin was the son of William Eyler (1797-1875) and Mary Strine (1803-1882) who are buried at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Rocky Hill. William and son Benjamin were teamsters who often hauled timber and lumber. As shown in our tables Billy's mother, Mary Ellen Locke, was a great granddaughter of Col. Joseph Wood. The Eylers or Ilers were said to come not from Eyler's Valley but from Lancaster. John Eiler and wife Margaretha had John Henry born Dec. 15, 1771 recorded at Rocky Hill Church, also John August 26, 1776 and John Jacob October 2, 1770.

Billy Eyler at age 100

Billy Eyler's wife, Effie, was a daughter of Daniel P. Zimmerman (1842-1911) and wife, Catherine L. Stitely (1843-1907) of Woodsboro. Daniel was a son of Solomon (1822-1907) and Susannah (Shank) Zimmerman (1812-1888) of the Woodsboro area. Catherine (Stitely) Zimmerman was a daughter of Samuel M. (1802-1890) and Elizabeth (Eberly) Stitely (1804-1891) who are buried at Rocky Hill Church, as are earlier Jacob and Mary Stitely.

Billy and Effie Eyler operated a dairy farm on Coppermine Road near Woodsboro until he retired in 1942. Thereafter he lived in Woodsboro with his only daughter Kathryn and her husband, John Drenning. Billy became the town's most widely known citizen, especially as he reached and exceeded 100 years. For over 55 years he played brass instruments in Frederick County bands at concerts, on parades and at Sunday School picnics. These included the Woodsboro Band established in 1897, the Walkersville Band and later the Yellow Springs Band conducted by Charles C. T. Stull. Billy often played alto horn or mellophone, but at other times cornet or trombone. He began playing at 18 and ended at Yellow Springs at 97. With the Braddock Band on November 15, 1911 he helped escort President Taft from the B. and O. Station to the Opera House in Frederick. Billy sang tenor or bass as needed for 25 years with the choir of St. Peter's Lutheran Church at Rocky Hill and for 32 years with the choir of Woodsboro Lutheran Church. At age 86 Billy marched for the 60th time in Woodsboro's Memorial Day Parade. Many of Billy Eyler's memories of early Frederick County were recorded in the Frederick News and Post. He recalled for example that about 1910 Pastor Reese S. Poffinberger recovered the early pulpit of Rocky Hill Church (including Germanic carvings) from the attic of a church member and reinstalled it where it remains today. Billy remembered Woods Mill in operation on later Cash Smith Road. Billy's sister, Etta (Eyler) Huffman lived to 95 years in Woodsboro. 7297 7293 If William Eyler's life of over 105 years is the longest recorded in this book, the name of his niece, Myra, is one of the longest as a result of her adoption and two marriages. Myra is the only surviving child of Flora Elizabeth Eyler (who died at 25) and Charles W. Stitely. Myra Edith Stitely Poole Urban Anderson born in 1897 lives with her daughter Myra Edith Kelly, also widowed, on West Second St. in Frederick. They have shared with us their newspaper clippings and memories of Woodsboro and Thurmont. Myra Anderson's great grandchildren are of the 12th generation from Augustine and Janette Herman.

ANOTHER JOSEPH WOOD. Judge Joseph Wood and son Col. Joseph Wood of Israel Creek, Monocacy Manor and Woodsboro must not be confused with another contemporary Joseph Wood who lived not far away to the east near Sam's Creek and whose family was associated with Linganore Hills and the Unionville area. This Joseph Wood, whose wife was Mary, had a son James who married Hanna James in 1777 (possibly a daughter of John James who lived and was buried on the later Kimmel farm east of present Linganore School). Witnesses of the marriage as recorded in the Lutheran Monocacy Book included Thomas and Susannah Wood. Apparently of the Linganore family was Richard Wood who married Elizabeth Head in 1778 with witness Robert Wood; also Elizabeth Wood who married John McCrachon in 1784 with witness Richard Wood. These records also are from the Lutheran Monocacy Book. It must have been the Joseph Wood of Sam's Creek who was the constable of Pipe Creek Hundred in 1748. A relative was Charles Wood (wife Mary) who lived in 1748 on Linganore Creek a mile south of Unionville as noted in the Tracey manuscript. The Joseph Wood of Linganore (wife Mary) had slaves, sold land in 1750 and 1757, and had a Frederick County will probated in 1817. He made his mark

 GENEALOGY LIST:
 Family Histories of Interest in Western Maryland and Neighboring Pennsylvania
 By C. E. Schildknecht, Gettysburg

Family histories and genealogies published, and others as typed manuscripts, are scattered widely in libraries and homes. The following alphabetical list was made to help locate those of interest in Western Maryland and adjacent Pennsylvania, which I have seen in libraries from New York City, Lancaster, Baltimore and DC westward to Hagerstown and Chamberburg. Some genealogies of interest which have come to my attention in private homes are also included but without locations. References are given also to significant family studies published in Maryland Historical Magazine, other journals and in books.

Early migrations to our area make numerous family studies and records of Lancaster and York Counties of Pennsylvania of interest. Later migrations from Western Maryland, especially southward and westward, have resulted in genealogies being written in other states, which include early data significant in our area.

Alternate spellings of family names are given when known and not obvious. European spellings have been checked with those of authors abroad as available in the National Union Catalog to 1956 (Card Index of the Library of Congress). Unfortunately, some family studies lack dates, places of publication and in some cases the names of authors. The quality of scholarship and information vary widely. I have included a few, with some inaccuracies and over-optimism. Even fragmentary records and traditions may give clues to further research. I have even included a few genealogies claiming to trace ancestors to Charlemagne or even earlier.

Unfortunately, many writers of family histories have been weak on European geography and languages. For example, many vague references to Prussia and Bavaria are not very helpful. Few early settlers came to our area from present Bavaria's area. Bavarians are quite different Germanic people, few of whom arrived here before the 19th century. The Ammer River is said to be the boundary between Bavarians and Swabians.

Some genealogists have been satisfied to give only names and dates, e.g., from microfilms, ignoring the wealth of information on locations, activities and local history in courthouse and church records, as well as in old maps and research of the countryside. The wide varieties of family histories of the late 19th to late 20th centuries show contrasting traits of different old world races and colonizing groups and their varied reactions to life in America. They show changes from large farm families, often with high infant mortality, to much smaller families of industrial city life where high mobility and separations make tracing families more difficult.

Mount Hope 100 Years Ago

By THOMAS EYLER

Mount Hope, Adams county, was known along the old swamp road.

The first school house was built from hickory logs and one of the teachers was Israel Eyler. Later a man by the name of Rogers, taught school there. He was a very cross man and as he and the scholars could not agree, the school house was burned. Then they built another school at Mount Hope.

Some of the oldest settlers were Frederick Miller, James McCarney, Israel Eyler, Michael Singley and a Mr. Buller. James McCarney had been a cart boy on the old Tape Worm railroad. He had five sons, John, Thomas, Levi, George, and William, and one daughter, Sarah, who married Harry Bigham and moved to Oregon. All are now dead.

Israel Eyler had three sons, Wilson, Albert, and Daniel, and four daughters: Abarilla, who married Clayton Chamberlain; Mary, who married John Sites; Jenny, who was the wife of Jerry Daywalt, and Annie. All of these are now deceased.

I do not know how many children there were in the Buller family but I once met John and William, and a daughter, the wife of Peter Brooks.

Michael Singley had three sons, Samuel, Edward and George and four daughters: one, whose name I do not know, married David Stoops; Lasinda, the wife of William Sanders; Katy, who married William Brooks, and Elizabeth, who married James Mickley.

Joseph Kint had five daughters: Sarah, who became the wife of William Currens; Marrie, wife of Plus Bigham; Jane, who became the bride of Emmanuel Shindledecker; Ida, who died when she was about ten years old, and Ann, who after the death of her husband, George Naugle, wedded David Shindledecker.

John Kint had two sons: John, who married Eliza Shrover, and William, who married Anna Mary Talhelm; and six daughters: Margaret, the oldest; Julia, who never married; Lizzie, who married John Dixon; Jennie, the wife of John Currens; Sallie, who married Simon Cline, and Mary, the wife of John Mackley.

James Watson had two sons and three daughters. Sarah married Levi McCarney; Mary married John Peters, and Harriet, wife of Samuel Carbaugh.

Wilson Eyler married Ann Mackley. They had no children and after her death he married Sarah Currens. Daniel Eyler married Missouri Charlotte Cline and to this union were born five sons and two daughters, Thomas, Roy, Frank, Owen, George, Bertha, and Bessie. Bertha married Mr. McClain and Bessie became the wife of William Harbaugh.

William Shindledecker had five sons, and two daughters. William married Maggie Deardorff. Emmanuel married Jane Kint and they had three sons and a daughter—William, who married Susan Kint; James, who married Ruth Stoner; Hiram who never married, and Maggie, who became the wife of Peter Sease. John married Ella Becks, and James was accidentally shot by William McCarney while on his way home from Fairfield. Alfred died, with diphtheria, about the age of fourteen years. Amanda married Oliver Lightner and Elizabeth also died of diphtheria.

The place known as the Russell place, was built by James Watson, from Ireland. He lived there until his death and the home was then occupied by his son, George, and family. The house was last occupied by the Reuben Kepner family until it burned, in 1921. James Watson had four sons: George, Robert, James, and John, and one daughter, Eliza, who married Dr. James Stem. James married Elizabeth Carbaugh and they had two sons, William and Robert, and two daughters, Mary, who married Dr. Robert Oyler, and Anna, wife of Ephriam Swope. George Watson had three sons and four daughters: James, Charles, John, Eliza, Margaret, Emma, and Alice. They sold the farm to D. B. Russell which was then known as the Copper Company Mine, where they mined for copper ore. O. B. Lightner, Ephriam Sanders, Mede Sell, and Charles Benchhoff all worked in the mine. Harrison Benchhoff later moved to the farm and reared his family there. He had four sons and three daughters: John, Charles, Samuel, David, Fannie, Annie, and Mollie.

The place known as the Jerry Sites place, was also owned and operated for mining, John Sites, Mattison and Geary Shindledecker worked for a long time at several mines on this place. They were known as the Stackhouse Company. Edward Singley and Plus Bigham while working in these mines, were injured by a blast of dynamite. Bigham lost an eye and an arm, and Singley lost an eye. The accident occurred at night.

Enoch Kepner, who was one of the old settlers, had three sons, William, John, and Reuben, and four daughters. Two married brothers, Mary married Frank Baker and Sarah married his brother Hiram. Harriet was married to a Mr. Willard, and Elizabeth became the wife of Samuel Fitz.

Mattison Shindledecker, who married Janie Reese, had three sons and three daughters: Geary, David, Irvin, Emma, Ella, and Annie.

Levi Shindledecker had two daughters, Alice and Mary. John Valentine, who was also one of the older settlers, had two sons, John and Benjamin, and one daughter, Mary.

Alfred Kellholtz had one son, Harry, and three daughters, Laura, Rosie and Mame. Clayton Chamberlain had five sons and two daughters: Joseph, William, Harry (who went to the Philippines and upon his return from a furlough at home, contracted yellow fever and died); Elmer, Charles, Mary, and Grace. Mary married Harvey Staley and Grace died when just a young girl.

John Sites, who married Mary Eyler, had one son, Charles. He married Sarah Kathryn Kepner and they had six daughters, Laura, Kate, Effie, Edna, Lula, and Olive. The latter two died of diphtheria when young girls.

Jerry Daywalt had four sons, Calvin, William, Harvey and Daniel, and five daughters, Preathie, Mollie, Annie, Grace, and Minnie.

William Currens had two sons, John and Joseph, and four daughters, Rosie, Mary, Lizzie, and Ida.

William Kepner's five sons were William, John, Abe, Roy, and Robin, and his four daughters were Kate, Myrtle, Alice and Mame. John Kepner had one son, Frank, and three daughters, Sarah, Florence, and Ruth.

Reuben Kepner had three sons, John, William and Mervin, and two daughters, Millie and Blanche. David Stoops had two sons, Daniel and Benny, and two daughters. David Stoops, son of Samuel Stoops, had four sons, William, Samuel, Calvin and Charles, and three daughters, Alice, Julia, and Ida.

Peter and William Brooks lived at Mount Hope, but I cannot recall how many children they had.

Mount Hope was a very patriotic place. The following men all served in the Civil War: Joseph Kint, William, Mattison and Levi Shindledecker; Wilson and Albert Eyler, John Sites, Jerry Daywalt, John Furgerson, James Mickley, David Stoops, William and Peter Brooks, William and John Buller, and Fred Miller's son.

World War men from near Mount Hope were Robert Kump, Samuel Kump, Calvin Kump, George Kint, Frank Kepner, Grant Bigham, Isaac Metz, and Foutz Metz. All returned safely.

I began my school days at Mount Hope sixty years ago. At no time that I attended school did any of the teachers use a rod in the school room. There are not many of my schoolmates left to tell of the pleasant days we spent together in the old school house at Mount Hope.

I will now tell how we had to work for a living when I was a young lad. We had to cut wood, peel bark, make shingles, rails and posts. We got 33 to 40 cents per cord to cut wood, $2.25 a thousand for shingles, $1.25 a ton to peel bark and pitch it on the wagons.

In 1889, the B and H division of the Western Maryland Railroad was made from Orrtanna to Highfield. Emmanuel King built a store, placed a railroad switch and the name of Virginia Mills was given to the postoffice there. Mr. King bought wood and bark and that helped to give work to the men at Mount Hope. A woman by the name of Virginia Myers, owned a farm and grist mill nearby, and it was from her name that they selected a name for the postoffice.

O. B. Lightner was a miller who operated the grist mill. He married Amanda Shindledecker and later bought a farm and located at Mount Hope. He was a blacksmith, a good man and a help to all at Mount Hope.

Later the soldiers who had fought in the Civil War received pensions and this helped to better living conditions at Mount Hope. Better homes were built. A church was built and the people attended church and Sunday school. They were a kind and good-hearted people. I helped to build eight houses and small barns. We met together, hewed the logs and built the houses with no charge, but were always served a good dinner.

When the Snyder family died with smallpox William Shindledecker told me he helped to bury them, and when a lady living in a house below where they were making a park, died of smallpox, Wilson Eyler made the burial. The people were good and were always ready to help, even at the risk of losing their own lives.

Picnic Grounds

The ground on which were held school entertainments, was first used for a dance picnic and was owned by a committee composed of John Kepner, Levi and William McCarney and Andy Bigham. John Minick paid to come and furnish refreshments. He also furnished music for dancing. Jim Green and Bob Gosser, and later William Shindledecker, played the fiddle for dancing. When the committee later disagreed, the grounds were used for Sunday school gatherings, woods meetings, and is still used for all the Sunday school picnics.

Dear Mr. Eilar:

Your letter addressed to the Clerk's Office of it being referred to me. I believe I can help you at least as far as the records here are concerned. I do an immense am-out of this work in the course of a year and more than familiar with the history of this county. Let me say, I did all of the research and editorial work on the recently published "Maryland Guide" (the work that cost the Federal Government $1.00 per word) and I believe I know this county better than the average person. My ancestor, John Thomas Schley built the first house in this town, and my people have been very closely associated with Maryland history since 1670; personally I am a second cousin of the late Admiral Winfield Scott Schley and my mother was a niece of Chief Justice Solmon P. Chase, of Lincoln's cabinet; am a civil engineer by profession (Lehigh University) and have been interested in historical and genealogical research for many years-- since 1910. So there you have my background.

I find after a hasty search that there are four early will of the Eiler family dating from 1816 to 1842-- Barbara, Conrad, Frederick and Jonas --- and a number of later date;; some thirty marriage record of male members of this family dating from 1821 to 18 64. I didn't have time to go into the female side, or the land records. But I am certain that what I could send you would be of value to you in your search. Somewhere around this office I have other data of this family, but I cannot now locate it. We have data on almost every prominent Frederick County family, and every record copied is retained in carbon.

Dear Mr. Eilar:

Your letter addressed to the "County Clerk" was received at the Clerk's Office and by them handed to me. This office does no genealogical work of any kind; all of it being referred to me. Let me say, I did all of the research and editorial work on the recently published "Maryland Guide" (the work that cost the Federal Government $1.00 per word) and I believe I know this county better than the average person. My ancestor, John Thomas Schley built the first house in this town, and my people have been very closely associated with Maryland history since 1670; personally I am a second cousin of the late Admiral Winfield Scott Schley and my mother was a niece of Chief Justice Solomon P. Mr. Ralston Goldsborough, C.E.
Room 2, Pythian Castle
Frederick, Maryland

Dear Mr. Goldsborough,

Since mailing you my letter of last week, I re-read your interesting communication and noted cash in advance feature. ($10.00). My salary check will reach me Friday of next week, so I suspect that will hold up any service.

Also, I re-read the paragraph concerning our Valentine Eiler in The History of Montgomery County (Dayton), Ohio, and Pioneers of Ohio, and noted this significant statement: "Valentine Oyler came from Canada to Ohio in 1796, was a Tory and had to leave his NATIVE state of Maryland during the Revolutionary War and flee to British Dominions." I blush at the implication of Tory, but this is softened by the fact that other Eilers were soldiers for the Continental Army, and the Culps and Robertsons and Allens, other relatives, were in the army for Washington and our cause, and also by the fact that the History of the Brethren Church, Otho Winger, states that "Valentine Eiler was a member of the Brethren (Dunkard) Church in Colonial America; he had emigrated from Germany; during the Revolutionary War he was true to his peace principles. Because of this he was persecuted and fled to Quebec."

But back to the place of Valentine's birth. The above Pioneers of Ohio statement is that he was a NATIVE of Maryland, which means he was BORN there. And I and Dr. J.S. Eilar feel that he was born in Dogges Choice, son of Jacob Eiler, and grandson of Conrad Eiler. This is what we seek to verify or to disprove by documentary data. This fact alone is my first goal; later the other details.

Here is what seems to be our background, on the Eiler lineage:

- I. SWISS ORIGIN: prior to 1492 the family lived entirely in Switzerland, Basel etc. The name was there Von Euler. (Eu German umlaut pronounced Oy or Oi)
- II. PALATINATE MIGRATION : About that date certain members of the Euler family moved to Zweibrucken, Palatinate, Germany, and stayed 'at times at the house of the princes'. From here they scattered over the entire German Empire, yes even coming to the new world. (This is the language of Ernest Drumm, geneologist, in a letter a few years ago. He has tree of the family for me, if and when the war ends and peace relations resume)
- III. AMERICAN MIGRATION: In Sept. 1729, Conrad Eiler, wife Elizabeth, sons Jacob and Valentine, and daughters Mary, Catherine, and Barbara came to Lancaster County, Penn. and in 1738 Conrad Eyler, and sons Jacob and Valentine took out warrant for 200 acers each of land. Dear Mr. Goldsborough,

I enclose herewith just a token, and I will be most happy to extend the total investment up to a ceiling of $25.00, including what I have invested, if, as, and when you get the final facts on the question:

Who was the father of Valentine Eiler (Eyler, Oyler), born Feb. 8, 1745, and where he was born. Any other data about him. Wife, Susannah Culp. Born 1747.

I feel sure you have the man when you report the land purchase in 1771, Susannah Eiler as wife. This couple had a son, Jacob, born that year. You also report a sale of a parcel of land by Valentine Eiler and wife Susannah in 1779, just about the time he sold out and went to Gros Isle, Canada.

If we can do anything about this we will have our problem solved.

I enclose some data from Dr. J.S.Eilar, who has been interested with me.

I think this is our line;

- I. Conrad Eiler, arrived in 1729. (Family shown on enclosures)
- II. Sons Valentine and Jacob. (We think we are of oldest son Jacob line. He went into Maryland about 1763)
- III. Valentine Eiler, born 1747.

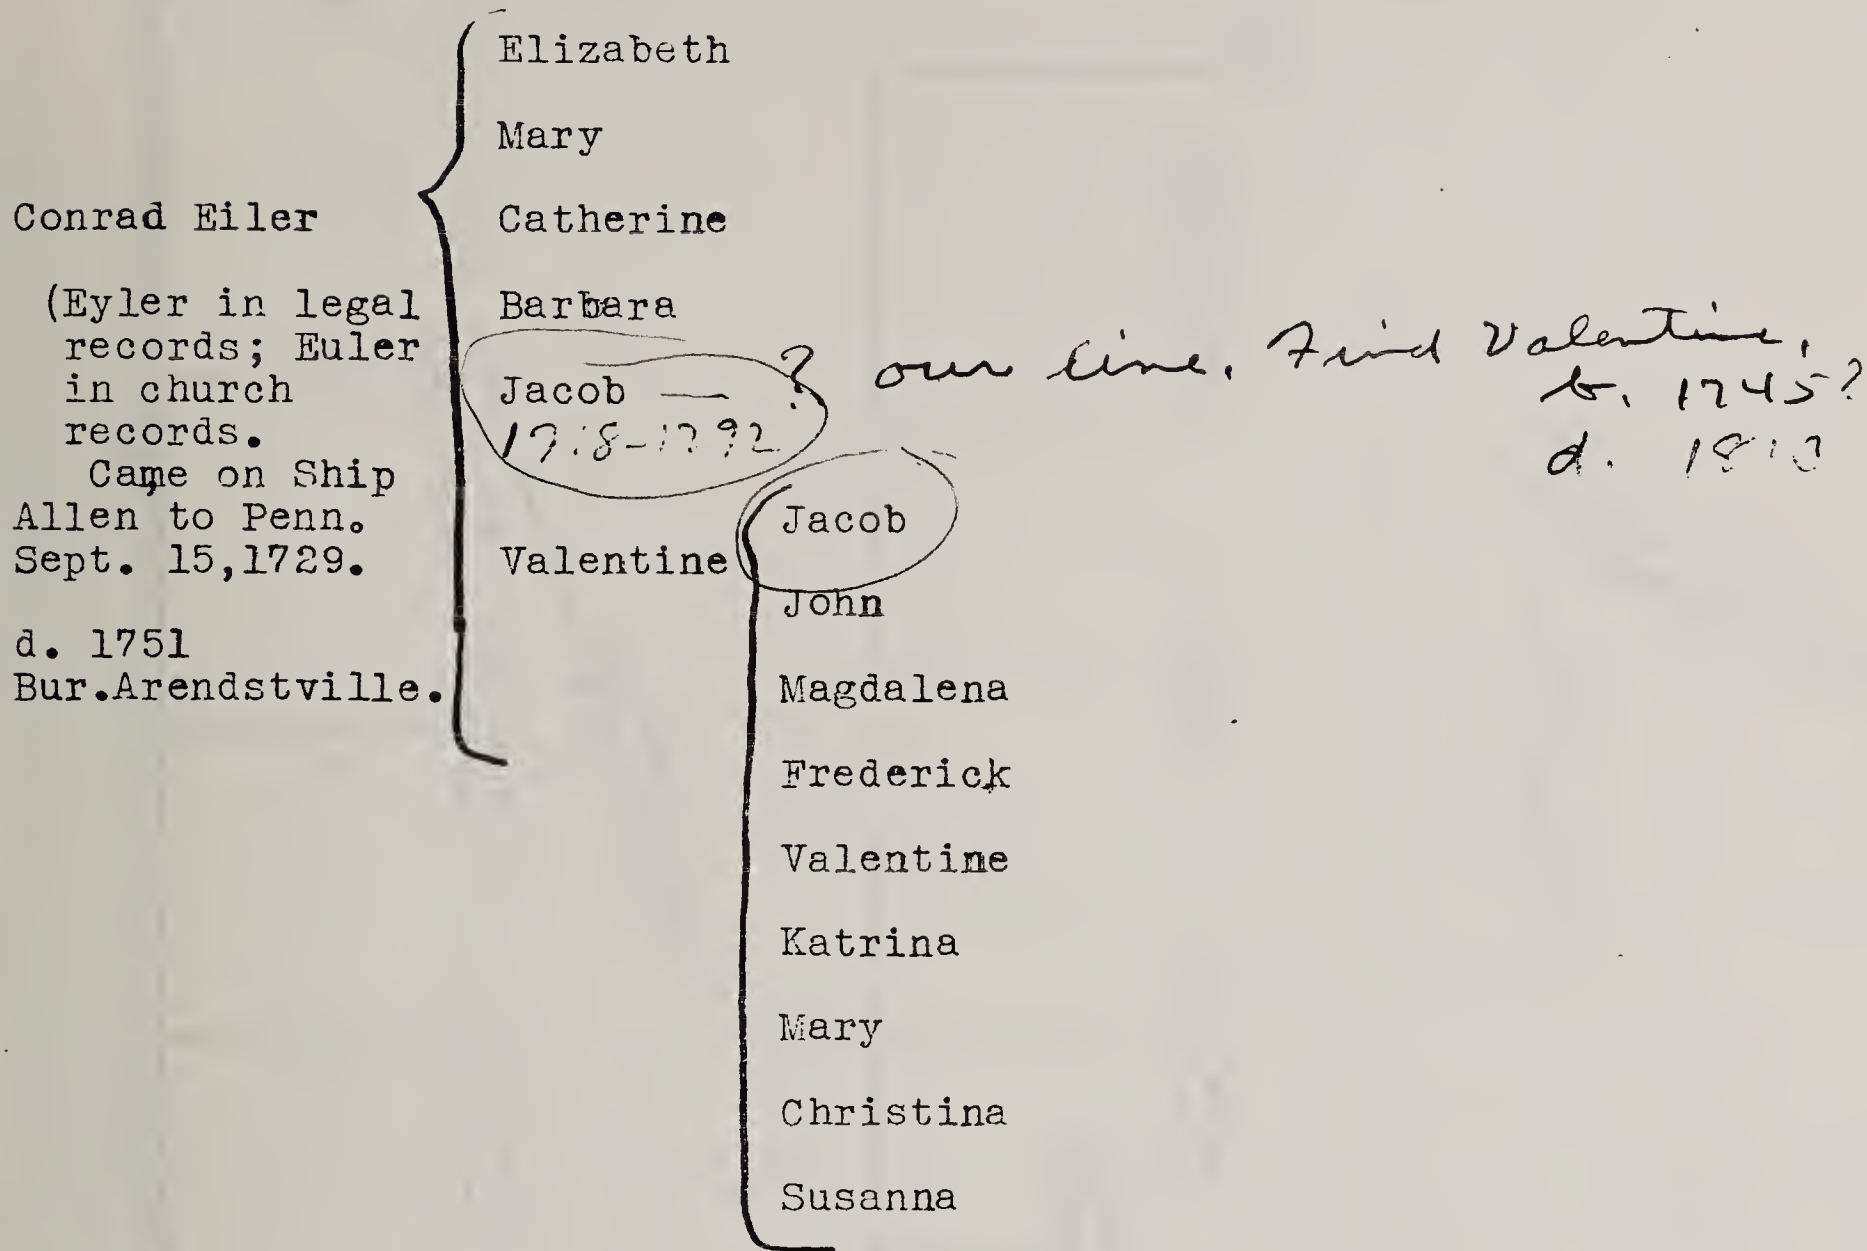

Yours very truly,

Jesse Eilar

If Jacob, son of Conrad, had a Valentine Eiler, born Feb. 14, 1745, and married to Susannah Culp, who was born in 1747, we have the information we set out to secure, and can then connect with the Swiss Line from Basel via the Palatinate.

Chewsville school; Alice, who married William Funk, died without issue.

BARRY M. HARTLE, farmer and stock dealer, residing a short distance east of Chewsville was born November 19, 1863, in Leitersburg District, Washington County, Md., a son of Peter and Margaret (Sheley) Hartle. Peter Hartle also was born in Leitersburg District, and was a son of Jacob Hartle, whose grandfather, George Hartle, came from Germany early in the eighteenth century, and settled along the Antietam Creek, in what is now Chewsville District.

During the year 1904, the stone that once marked the grave of George Hartle was dug from an old stone fence on the farm now owned by Joshua Hoover, at the edge of the Antietam Creek. It bears the following inscription: "George Hartel, Born November 10, 1822, Died December 11, 1878." This stone now rests in the house-yard of John H. Hartle, a great-grandson of George Hartle, and a brother of Peter Hartle. Jacob Hartle married Nancy Koontz, and had children: Ephraim; Peter; Isaiah; David S., who died in 1904; John H.; Charles K., who died in 1903; Kate, who married John H. Miller, of Leitersburg; and Ann, who married Christian Miller, and died in 1876.

Peter Hartle married Margaret Sheley, of Old Forge, daughter of Joshua and Louisa (Black) Sheley. Peter Hartle died in 1879. His wife died in 1885. They were the parents of seven children: Carrie, who married Silas Newcomer, is dead; Barry M.; Hadie, who died single; Nancy, who married Joseph W. Harp, is deceased; Mamie, a maiden lady, resides with her brother, Barry M.; Bessie, who keeps house for her uncle John Hartle; Charles P., is unmarried and lives with his brother, Barry M. Peter Hartle was a Democrat. His wife was a member of the German Reformed Church of Leitersburg.

Barry M. Hartle was educated in the public schools and brought up on agricultural pursuits. He taught school for five years, beginning when he was nineteen years old. He was appointed United States Gauger by President Cleveland in 1887, and served until 1889. During the second administration of President Cleveland Mr. Hartle was appointed postmaster at Chewsville, and served four years. Through the influence of his

He had four children: John, David, Jacob, Elizabeth, who married Jacob Ridenour. Peter Flora and wife were members of the Lutheran Church, at Smithsburg, and are buried in the graveyard at that place.

Jacob Ridenour was a school teacher, justice of the peace, surveyor and farmer. He married Elizabeth Flora, by whom he had nine children: Rebecca, who married John Bulman, of Frederick Co.; John, who died at the age of fifteen years; Elizabeth, who married John Rohrer; Sallie, who married Henry Sheley; Sophia, who married Jacob Mentzer; Anna, who married Andrew French; Harriet, who married John Stepney; Susan, who died young; Jacob, who married Kasia Scottlemyer. Jacob Ridenour was buried on the old homestead in Frederick Co. His wife is buried in a Lutheran graveyard at Foxville, Frederick Co. Jacob Ridenour and wife were members of the German Reformed Church, but there being no church of that denomination in their neighborhood, they worshipped at the Lutheran Church. Jacob Ridenour was a Democrat in politics and took an active interest in local affairs. He owned a farm in the mountainous regions of Frederick Co., which was thickly covered with timber.

On March 1, 1838, Elizabeth Ridenour was married to John Rohrer, of Washington Co., Md. They settled in Beaver Creek district, where Mr. Rohrer was a miller at the old John and Michael Newcomer mill on Beaver Creek. Mr. Rohrer was subsequently employed as a miller for John and Michael Newcomer for a number of years. He then bought a farm in Chewsville district, which is still in the possession of the family. It contained 109 acres. Mr. Rohrer bought another farm of 187 acres in the same district which is also owned by the family. John Rohrer died on one of his farms, January 26, 1893, and was buried in the graveyard at Beaver Creek. He was a member of the Christian Church at Beaver Creek, of which his wife, who survives, is also a member. John Rohrer and wife had ten children: Hiram, who married and lives in Iowa, where he has a family; William H., who married Mary Funk; David, who died young; John, who lives in Beaver Creek district; Silas, who died young; Mary Elizabeth, who married A. D. Sager; Savilla, who married Jacob Adams; Amelia, who married George C. Funk; Jacob, who married Lillie Bovey, died leaving four children. His widow lives with her eldest son, Clarence, who is a teacher in the the manufacture of this preparation, in which they have made great success, having accumulated a fortune estimated at $4,000,000. Dr. Peter Fahrney was married to a Pennsylvania lady, by whom he had six children, five of whom are living, engaged in business in Chicago. Dr. Peter Fahrney established what is known as the Fahrney memorial; he also donated the bone, a fine brick building, to be used as a home for the old and helpless people; David, the fourth child, secured a fine education, and went west but never made much success in life; Josiah, the fifth child, lives in Waynesboro, where he is connected with the Geiser Manufacturing Co.

Ann, the daughter of Peter and Eve Fahrney, was married to a Mr. Burkholder, and they became the parents of Dr. Burkholder with whom Peter Fahrney read medicine at Quincy. Another of their children, Dr. David Burkholder, read medicine with Dr. Daniel Fahrney. Eve, another daughter of Peter and Eve Fahrney, married David Gantz, and they reared a family.

Peter Fahrney, Jr., was born in Chambersburg, October 8, 1836, and on February 26, 1822, he was married to Elizabeth Emmert, who was born February 13, 1811; they had the following children: Mary Ann, born March 18, 1830, married John Funk; Susanna, born September 25, 1831, was married to Henry C. Koontz; she is dead; Mr. Koontz lives in Waynesboro, and is blind; Nancy, who became the second wife of John Funk, is dead; Elizabeth, who married Thomas McKee, lives in Chewsville district; Sarah Ann, born April 14, 1838, married David Rudesell, since deceased; she lives in Boonsboro district; Joseph, born February 9, 1840; Peter D., born June 21, 1843, is a physician in Frederick City; Savilla, born September 29, 1845, married Benjamin F. Foltz; John E. Margaret, born May 21, 1850, married Peter Newcomer, and they live near Waynesboro; Lydia, born October 28, 1853, married Charles Kline, and is deceased. Peter Fahrney died July 31, 1885, and was buried at Fahrney's Church. His widow died July 23, 1887, and was buried in the same place. They were members of the German Baptist Church. He was a successful farmer and owned at his death property worth about $20,000.

John E. Fahrney was educated in the old school-house which stood near Fahrney's Church; the occupations of his life have been farming and coachmaking. He learned this trade and followed it for some time at Waynesboro, Pa., and also worked at car shops in Altoona, and in carriage works in Ogle County, Ill. John E. Fahrney was married, December 7, 1875, to Sarah Jane Benchoff. She was a daughter of David and Maria (Elyer) Benchoff, who were the parents of the following children: 1. Columbus F., who died in Baltimore, was for years with the Mason Cracker Co. as a partner; also with the Tyler Cracker Co.; he married Clara Allen, and they had two children, Charles, and Mary, married to William McConnor; 2. Catharine, married Lewis N. Foltz, son of Jacob Foltz, had two children, Frederick and Lulu Jane, all live in Nebraska; 3. Sarah Jane; 4. John J., who married Clara Thurston, since deceased, had one child, Nora, married to Edgar Smith; 5. John J. Benchoff, a traveling salesman; 6. Robert, who married Anna V. Gasman and have four children, Nedie, William, Henry, Sadie; 7. William, married Olivia Oswald.

John E. Fahrney and wife have four children: Edna M., who died at the age of 26 years; Mary E.; Katie M.; and Nellie E. At marriage Mr. Fahrney settled on his present farm of 150 acres, where he has ever since resided. He is a stockholder in the Boonsboro Bank, and a stockholder and director in the Mapierville Telephone Co. He is also a stockholder in the Victor Remedy Co., of Frederick. Mr. Fahrney is a member of the German Baptist Church, while his wife is a member of the Lutheran Church.

Joseph Fahrney, son of Peter and Elizabeth (Emmert) Fahrney, a farmer, residing in Beaver Creek District, was married in 1878, to Jennie S. Cost, daughter of Ezra and Caroline Cost. Her mother was born in Frederick County, and removed with her parents when she was a small child. She is one of five children who grew to maturity; Elias, John, Lizzie, Jennie, and Ezra M. Of these, Elias Cost was sheriff and judge of the Orphans' Court of Washington Co. Mr. and Mrs. Fahrney settled at marriage where they now live, renting for sixteen years from Wely Fahrney. They then bought the farm, containing 186 acres, which they have very much improved. Mr. Fahrney has served as school trustee and as assessor of his district. He is a stockholder and director in the Beaver Creek turnpike company and the Mt. Zion Cemetery Company. His wife is a member of the United Brethren Church. Joseph Fahrney and wife are the parents of six children: an infant, deceased; Clarence; Mary; Vergie;

Lester; and another infant, deceased. Mr. Fahrney votes the Republican ticket.

JOHN D. WISHERD was born in 1823, in Franklin Co., Pa., and died March 25, 1904. He was a son of John Wisherd.

Jacob Wisherd was the first one of the family to come to America. He had two sons, Jacob and John. In all probability he settled in some portion of Pennsylvania; it is certain that his two sons settled in Franklin County. The list of taxables for 1788 in Washington township, Franklin County, Pa., or that portion which is now included in Quincy township, contains the names of John Wisherd, James Wisherd and Edward Wisherd. John Wisherd, son of Jacob, married a German, and lived in Franklin County. He and his brother Jacob both had large families. Jacob Wisherd farmed for a time the Dr. Humrichouse farm near Williamsport, and then moved to McDonough County, Ill., settling near Bushnell. Here he shipped stock for a time. He was attacked by rheumatism of an inflammatory character, which went to his heart and killed him suddenly. He married Miss Stall, and had a family of six children. Two daughters are dead. Jacob, David and Martin are living; one son is deceased.

John Wisherd, of Franklin County, Pa., had children, as follows: Edward Wisherd, who was married in Illinois in early manhood; he removed to Missouri, and nothing is known of their family; William, deceased, was married and settled for a time in the West; John D.; Catharine, who married Simon Zimmerman; both are dead, and left children; a daughter who married Samuel Elliott, and lived in Pennsylvania, where they had one daughter, Mary; another daughter who married John Moninger; Susan, who married Wesley Sheop; Mary, who married John Myers; and Sabina, who married Mr. Maun, and had one daughter.

John D. Wisherd, who was educated in Franklin Co., made up his mind to seek for success in another field. He therefore borrowed seventy-five cents, and made his way to Beaver Creek District, Washington County, Md., where he began his career as a marble cutter, at Avey's marble quarry. He prospered from the beginning, and later became a manufacturer of tombstones, which he erected not only in Maryland, but in Pennsylvania and

The first settlement in this district was made about the year 1758 or '59, by a Swiss colony in the southwest portion of Harbaugh's Valley, in the neighborhood of what is now called "Hauver's." It is a national instinct of the Swiss to love mountainous regions. Swiss soldiers, it is said, have died of homesickness for their Alps, and Swiss immigrants nearly always seek the more elevated lands. Hence the first Swiss pioneers in Frederick County passed by the fertile valleys and sought the lands on the sides of the Catocin Mountains. The next settlers were the Harbaughs, in 1760 and '61. All this region was then a wilderness, for Frederick Town had only been laid out fifteen years before, and five years previous Chambersburg, Pa., was a small town on the outskirts of civilization. The whole country between Chambersburg and Frederick, including Conococheague Valley, showed but here and there a small settlement. Rev. Michael Schlatter, who passed from Frederick to the above valley in 1748, speaks of all the region west of the South Mountain as presenting nothing but regions of grass, hazel-bushes, shrubbery, and crab-apple trees, and says the whole country was called "the barrens." Indians were still there, but friendly when they were not drunk. When George Harbaugh, the first settler, removed to the valley, which took its name from him, there was as yet no road in existence through it. The immigrants had to unload their effects and leave their wagons at the eastern end of the valley, where they made arrangements to convey their effects to the place of destination on sleds, and partly on pack-horses. The first of the noted family of Harbaugh to settle in America was Yost Harbaugh, a native of Switzerland. He arrived in 1736, and settled first in Maxatawny, a valley of Berks County, Pa., but about 1743 removed to the new settlement of Krentz Creek, west of the Susquehanna. He died in April, 1762. He was twice married, and his children were as follows: By his first wife, George, Ludwig, Jacob, John, Henry, Yost; and by his second wife named "Mary Liz" in his will, Leonard, Mary Elizabeth, Ann Margaret, and Ann Catherine. The emigrant, Yost Harbaugh, was a member of the German Reformed Church, and married his second wife in Pennsylvania in 1746. Of the above children, George Harbaugh was the first of the three brothers that removed to the valley. He was born in Switzerland in 1727, and came down from York County, Pa., to the valley in 1760 or '61, about the time of the establishment of "Mason and Dixon's line," which ended the disputes that so seriously interfered with the early settlers. He became a Moravian in his religious profession, which was perhaps occasioned from the comparative nearness of the Moravian settlement at Graceham. He came to his death by accidental drowning, somewhere in the head-waters of the Falls Creek, near the foot of what is called Mount Misery. His children were George, John, Anna Regina, Elizabeth, and a little daughter who, at the age of six years, was accidentally killed by the discharge of a gun. Of the children, George lived a while on the old homestead and then removed to Bedford County, Pa. There George had a son, Jacob, a lame man, who kept tave in Sabillasville; John lived at what is now Schult mill, and later went to Ohio; Anna Regina married Mr. Eyler, resided in Eyler's Valley, and died 1849, aged ninety-two years, and is buried at Graceham; Elizabeth married a Mr. Fetter, of Bethlehem, Pa. Ludwig, the second son of Yost Harbaugh, and the second Harbaugh to settle in the valley, was born in Switzerland in 1728. After his marriage he moved from York County, Pa., to near Weller's mill just east of Mechanicsstown. From thence he moved to Middletown Valley, where his first son, Christian, was born Jan. 14, 1753. Afterwards, about 1761, he removed to Harbaugh's Valley, and settled on the farm not far from and southwest of Sabillasville, formerly Zollinger's, but in 1856 owned by John Harbaugh, of Christian. Ludwig died Aug. 1809, aged eighty-two years, and was buried in the graveyard on his own farm. His wife, Christiana, died Oct. 17, 1797, aged seventy years.

Their descendants were numerous. Of their children, Christian lived a short distance west of Sabillasville, and died March 23, 1836, aged eighty-three. He was buried at Graceham, and left one hundred and thirty children and grandchildren. He was a Moravian, as was his wife, a Miss Williard. Christiana had ten children, Peter, Christian, John (a noted tanner), who lived on a farm south of Sabillasville owned by his grandfather Ludwig; Elias, Henry, who lived on the old homestead near Sabillasville; Alexander, Solomon, Elizabeth, Mary, Rebecca, Charlotte, who married a Mr. Willman and lived in Sabillasville, and Sabina. Ludwig's second son was Jacob Harbaugh, who lived on the top of the mountain northwest of Sabillasville. He was called "Mountain Jacob." His first wife was the widow of a Mr. Winters, her maiden name being Casebeer. She was married to Jacob Harbaugh. They both died in their ninety-second year, left no offspring, and are buried on their homestead. The third son, Henry, married on the Monocacy, and removed to near Lexington, Ky. The fourth son, Peter, was unmarried, and was accidentally drowned in a branch of the Monocacy. He was on the eve of being married, and on arriving at the creek veyed part of lot No. 43, eighty-two and a half by two hundred and seventeen and a half feet, to Sebastian Ramsburg, John Feaster, Sr., Henry Crum, John Stockman, Sr., Henry Stockman, Jacob Feaster, Jr., John Hemp, and John Stockman, of John, the consistency of the church then duly organized, as a site for a church, which was immediately erected. Rev. N. H. Skyles has been pastor since 1875, and his predecessor was Rev. S. S. Miller.

Rev. E. Jenkins is the pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Post-office, Masonic Lodge, Etc.—O. E. Thomas has been postmaster since 1860, and before him three of his brothers, Emanuel, John, and Perry G., had held the office. This office has been most of the time in the Thomas family.

The great storm of Sept. 8, 1866, blew down the Methodist Protestant church, the Lutheran in part, as well as Dr. Crum's and Mrs. Anderson's houses in part. It was the most terrific wind-storm ever known in the valley.

St. Alban's Lodge, A. F. and A. M., No. 65, was located in New Town (now Jefferson), and was last represented in the Grand Lodge in November, 1820, by Samuel Cole (probably a proxy).

In the German Reformed cemetery, the oldest burying-ground, the following early settlers are buried, viz.: David Kemp, born Sept. 2, 1778, died Feb. 20, 1856, and Mary Kemp, his wife, born Dec. 20, 1782, died April 4, 1855; Thomas Lamar, born Dec. 19, 1777, and died Aug. 11, 1864.

Among other old families here interred are the Grosses, Barrieks, Baers, Flocks, and Lakins.

The teachers of the district for the term ending April 15, 1881, were:

School No. 1, 16 pupils, Addie Currier; No. 2, 105 pupils, W. H. Meyers, Annie E. Sowers, assistant; No. 3, 40 pupils, C. W. Marriott. No. 1 (colored), 37 pupils, W. A. Thomas.

The physicians are Drs. G. W. Crum, J. H. Crum, J. J. Culler; merchants, S. M. Culler, S. E. Little, Isaac Walker; saw-mill, H. C. Biser; dentist, Dr. H. D. Mills; dealers in harness, saddles, etc., D. C. Shaff, A. D. Doty; miller, Basil Lewis; blacksmiths, R. F. Cochran, H. C. Wise, Peter Poole; tobacco and notions, W. V. Culler; undertakers, T. T. Thomas, J. C. Etchison & Son; tailor, C. E. Thomas; carpenters, F. S. Feaster, W. P. Stockman, F. Shaff.

MECHANICSTOWN DISTRICT, No. 15.

Mechanicstown, or Election District No. 15, was created by the act of May 27, 1852, out of parts of Creagerstown (4), Emmittsburg (5), and Hauver's (10). The commissioners designated in the act to lay it off were Frederick White, John Eyer, and Michael M. Ege. Its boundaries were made as follows: "Beginning at the summit of the Catoctin Mountain, near the furnace, and running thence to a point near the blacksmith-shop of Michael Zimmerman; thence from said shop along the public road to Thomas Metcalf's land; thence with a straight line to John R. Boller's house, including said house and the village of Graceham; thence along the public road leading from Mechanicstown to the Emmittsburg cross-road; thence along the Emmittsburg road to a point where the branch known as Beaver Dam crosses said road; thence in a straight line to a point north of John A. Martin's house; thence in a northern direction to William Boller's farm; thence with the Emmittsburg road, leading to Wolf's tavern, to the cross-road from Mechanicstown to Sabillasville; thence with a straight line to Harman's farm; thence with the south side of the road to the new-cut road near Gat's farm, and thence with a straight line to the place of beginning."

Mechanicstown District is situated in the northern part of the county, with Hauver's and Emmittsburg Districts on the north, Emmittsburg and Creagerstown on the east, Creagerstown on the south, and Catoctin and Hauver's on the west.

The early settlers were the Wellers, Creagers, Wilhides, Pirors, and Rouzers, who came about 1750, with other pioneers. These were nearly all Germans. "Longatepaugh," a survey of two hundred and forty-nine acres, was patented to Lawrence Creager, July 17, 1779, and "Shoemaker's Knife," a tract of fifty-five acres, was granted July, 1746, to Philip Knaveil. During the French and Indian war the early inhabitants of this region were on the extreme Western frontier, and suffered severely from the depredations of the savages.

The pleasant village of Mechanicstown is beautifully situated on the east of the pretty stream called Hunting Creek, which has its source in the Catoctin Mountain. It is fifty-two miles northwest from Baltimore, and about the same distance from Washington City, and sixteen north of Frederick. It lies at the base of the mountain. The first settlement dates back to 1751, when a few buildings were erected along the road leading from Hagerstown via "Harman's Gap" to Baltimore. Lots were then laid out by James and Lawrence Creager, who held nearly all the lands as far as the present village of Creagerstown.

The Weller family was the first that actually settled on the site of the present town. There were three Weller brothers, who came from Berks County, Pa., one of whom stopped here because of the very large and fine spring of water, now called the "Cold Spring."

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present. The author then goes on to discuss the various factors that have shaped the development of the United States, including the role of the government, the influence of the economy, and the impact of the culture.

In the second part of the paper, the author examines the role of the government in the development of the United States. It is argued that the government has played a central role in the shaping of the nation, from the early days of the colonies to the present. The author then discusses the various ways in which the government has influenced the development of the country, including through the establishment of laws, the creation of institutions, and the promotion of economic growth.

The third part of the paper discusses the influence of the economy on the development of the United States. It is argued that the economy has been a major factor in the shaping of the nation, from the early days of the colonies to the present. The author then discusses the various ways in which the economy has influenced the development of the country, including through the creation of jobs, the promotion of economic growth, and the establishment of a stable financial system.

Finally, the author discusses the impact of the culture on the development of the United States. It is argued that the culture has been a major factor in the shaping of the nation, from the early days of the colonies to the present. The author then discusses the various ways in which the culture has influenced the development of the country, including through the establishment of values, the promotion of social progress, and the creation of a sense of national identity.

FREDERICK COUNTY.

local feature of Frederick County, as well as an important factor in its industrial prosperity.

The Monrovia Mills are situated upon the main stem of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, fifty miles from Baltimore, and while occupying a position unexcelled for the shipping of goods to any desired market, is no less accessible for the reception of the fine products of the agricultural region by which it is surrounded. The mill was originally built by Mr. Anthony Poultney, about a century ago, and afterwards rebuilt by D. Rinehart. Coming into Mr. Shearer's possession in 1869, it had the misfortune to be totally destroyed by fire in 1873. With the least possible delay it was rebuilt, and under the present management of Mr. Shearer it has enjoyed a steady and rapidly-growing business. The machinery, which is of the latest and best pattern, is operated by both steam and water-power, the former being obtained from a twenty-five horse-power engine, and the latter from Bush Creek, close to which the mill stands. There are two twelve-foot overshot-wheels and five runs of burrs, which give to the mill the capacity of one hundred barrels per day of twenty-four hours. The flour here produced is of a remarkably fine quality, and has a popularity which is not only local, but extends through this and the neighboring States to Rio Janeiro, Liverpool, and other points.

Monrovia is nine miles from Frederick. The station agent on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is W. W. Osborn, and his assistant is J. W. Sullivan, who is postmaster. M. P. Wood is the merchant, and George D. Page the blacksmith. The celebrated lawyer, Charles Pitts, a grandson of Nicholas Hall, the original proprietor of New Market, was born here. On the old "Hall patent land" Anna W. Plummer still resides, the granddaughter of William Plummer, who was the grandson of Samuel Plummer, who in 1743 entered over two thousand acres of land at Monrovia and New Market.

Cromwell is three miles from Ijamsville, five from Frederick, and forty from Baltimore, and is pleasantly situated near Linganore Creek. It has one church, the Methodist Protestant, of which Rev. Jesse Shreeve is pastor. R. J. Starr is the postmaster and merchant; Eden Sheers and Jacob Brady, coopers; A. J. Carpenter and Zachariah Dailey, blacksmiths; Samuel Kolb, mason; and J. W. Duvall & Sons, wheelwrights.

Ijamsville is on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, fifty-two miles from Baltimore, and nine from Frederick. H. R. Lowderman is the merchant, station agent, and postmaster. The railroad divides the village, all south of the track being in Urbana District.

The Methodist Episcopal church was dedicated July 25, 1858, with appropriate ceremonies, and sermons by Revs. Thomas B. Sergeant and T. M. Reese. It is on the Urbana and Buckeystown Circuit. Its present pastor is Rev. D. M. Browning. The Sunday-school superintendent is J. T. McComas.

New London is four miles from Monrovia, and near Ben's Branch. It has two churches,—the Methodist Protestant, of which Rev. Jesse Shreeve is pastor, and the Methodist Episcopal, of which Rev. D. M. Browning is the preacher in charge. The merchants are Noah Barnes (postmaster), J. S. Maxwell, Mrs. R. Spargo, and Mrs. M. A. Webb.

Kempton is situated near Bush Creek, four miles from Monrovia. It has one church,—Providence Methodist Protestant, of which Rev. Jesse Shreeve is pastor. The merchants are O. T. Fout and M. R. Lewis; postmaster, W. T. Lewis.

The teachers for the term ending April 15, 1881, were:

School No. 1, 64 pupils. Emma R. Garrett: No. 2, 51 pupils, J. B. Hyatt; No. 3, 39 pupils, C. M. Luckett; No. 4, 56 pupils, B. H. Riggs; No. 5, 34 pupils, G. D. Edmonston; No. 6, 73 pupils, J. T. Browning; No. 7, 25 pupils, Hannah Garrett; No. 8, 29 pupils, Ella S. Nelson. No. 1 (colored), 74 pupils, J. B. Washington; No. 2 (colored), 41 pupils, W. B. Johnson.

The magistrates are John T. Smith, Joel Hall, William Murphy; Constable, John Burgess.

HAUVER'S DISTRICT, No. 10.

Hauver's, or Election District No. 10, was laid out with the following boundaries, viz.:

"Beginning at the intersection of the State line dividing Washington and Frederick Counties: then with said line to the lines of District No. 3, at a stone on said line east of Jacob Trister's; thence south fifteen degrees, west about four miles and a half, near Eyer's fields; thence south thirty-seven and a half degrees, west about two miles, near Smith's saw-mill; thence south twelve degrees, east about a quarter of a mile, to Smith's mill; thence south twenty-three degrees, west about two and a quarter miles, near Hauman's saw-mill; thence south thirty-one degrees, west about three and a half miles, near Buzzard's saw-mill; thence south forty-eight degrees, west about one mile; thence south twenty-seven degrees, west about one and a half miles; thence south about three-quarters of a mile to Ferran's swamp; thence north eighty-seven degrees, west about three and a quarter miles, to Margins; thence north sixty-five degrees, west about three miles, to Black Rock, on the Washington County line; thence with the Washington County line to the beginning."

The district, therefore, is bounded on the north by Pennsylvania, on the east by Emmitsburg and Mechanicstown Districts, on the south by Catoctin, and on the west by Washington County. It is situated in the extreme northwestern portion of the county. The villages are Sbillasville and Foxville.

of an agriculturist's life. When he was twenty-seven years old, he left home, and with his brother, Lewis, and his brother-in-law, Aaron Staley, bought the home which he now owns. It then consisted of 312 acres. Later Mr. Horman bought his partners' interests and in the settlement 117 acres were sold. The remaining 165 acres is good land, and under a high state of cultivation. This farm was once owned by the McDonalds. The previous owner before Mr. Horman was William Lawson, from whom it was purchased in the spring of 1897. The brick used in the construction of the house was burnt on the place and the barn was erected by Mr. Lawson about thirty years ago. Mr. Horman has increased the desirability of the place by improving it. He has erected a fine two-story frame house with thirteen rooms, one of the finest homes of this section, and improved all his outbuildings, making this one of the best improved farms of the county. He is strictly a self-made man.

EDWARD ROSS EYLER, a prominent farmer residing on the Eyler homestead, in Eyler's Valley, Mechanicstown District, Frederick County, Md., son of ex-commissioner Charles A. and Charlotte (Gurley) Eyler, was born on the homestead, now his property, September 7, 1865.

Frederick Eyler, grandfather of Edward Ross Eyler, was born in Switzerland, April 9, 1776. In early manhood, he and a brother came to America, and settled in the northern part of Frederick County, Md., where he purchased a large tract of farm and timber land, and named the place of settlement Eyler's Valley. A part of this land is still in the family, the property of this grandson, Thomas R. Eyler. Mr. Eyler worked hard and was rewarded by success. On his share of the land, he built a dwelling, a barn, and all necessary out-buildings, and improved his land until the wild land had become a fair garden. Mr. Eyler became a prosperous farmer, and a highly respected citizen. He was a Democrat. Frederick Eyler was married, December 15, 1809, to Margaret Williar, who was born September 11, 1783. Their children are: 1, who died in childhood; 2, J. Frederick, deceased, a farmer of Mechanicstown District; 3, Caroline, deceased, married to the late Robert Clugston, of Waynesboro, Pa.; 4, Maria, deceased, married to the late John Benchoff, of Hagerstown, Md.; 5, Jane E., deceased, married to the late Samuel M. Diffendall, of Mechanicstown District; 6, William, deceased; 7, Charles A.; 8, Rebecca, widow of the late Mr. Favorite, of Graceham, Md.; 9, Mary J., deceased, married to Boyd Bowden, of Cumberland, Md. Mr. Eyler and his wife were members of the United Brethren Church. They died at their home in Eyler's Valley.

Charles A. Eyler, ex-county commissioner of Frederick County, father of Edward Ross Eyler, was born on the old homestead, in Eyler's Valley, Mechanicstown District, August 30, 1818. He was educated in the public schools of Mechanicstown District, and remained with his father on the home farm. After the death of his father, Mr. Eyler and his brother, Frederick, bought from two to three hundred acres of the homestead, which they cultivated together until the death of Frederick, when Mr. Eyler became sole owner of the property. The location of the farm is beautiful, and Mr. Eyler's intelligent cultivation and improvements made it one of the desirable farms of the district. Mr. Eyler was a Democrat. He was nominated by his party for county commissioner of Frederick County, and carried the county by a large majority. He discharged the duties of his office promptly and efficiently, giving satisfaction to all. He was a prosperous farmer, and an honored citizen of Frederick County. Charles A. Eyler was married, October 29, 1857, to Charlotte L., daughter of Thomas Gurley, who was a prominent citizen of Cumberland, Md. Of their eight children, five reached adult age: 1, Thomas F., a merchant of Sabillasville, Md.; 2, Ellen L., widow of Albert Colliflower, of Graceham, Md.; 3, Emma C., widow of John C. Farior, of Graceham; 4, Edward Ross; 5, Charles R., a farmer of Mechanicstown District. Mr. Eyler and his wife were members of the United Brethren Church of Eyler's Valley. He was one of the most active workers in the church, and held office for many years. He always contributed liberally to benevolent objects. Mrs. Eyler, who was born February 20, 1835, died October 18, 1879. Mr. Eyler died at his home in Eyler's Valley, January 21, 1901, and was buried beside his wife in the cemetery of the United Brethren Church in Thurmont, Md.

Edward Ross Eyler was educated in the public schools of Mechanicstown District, and remained on the home farm assisting his father. After his father's death, Mr. Eyler cultivated the land for a few years, and then purchased, from the estate, 183 acres of farm and timber land. His property is beautifully situated in the very heart of Eyler's Valley, five miles north of Thurmont, Md. Besides putting up a two-story frame dwelling, a bank barn, and the necessary out-buildings. Mr. Eyler has greatly improved the quality of the land. His hard work and constant attention to his business have made him a prosperous man and the owner of one of the desirable farms of the district. Mr. Eyler is a Democrat, actively interested in all that concerns the improvement of the county.

Edward Ross Eyler was married to Mary, daughter of Josiah and Ann Eliza (Homes) Wetzel, whose father was a prominent farmer of Emmitsburg District, Frederick County. Their children are: 1, Key Margaret, at school; 2, Lulu M., at school; 3, Charles E.; 4, Raymond E.; 5, Gordon I.; all at home. Mr. Eyler and his wife are members of the United Brethren Church in Eyler's Valley. They are active workers in the church, and contribute liberally to church finances. Mr. Eyler is superintendent of the Sunday school.

THE LATE EDWARD T. GETZENDANNER, a well-known farmer who resided near Poolesville, Md., eldest son of Daniel and Mary (Derr) Getzendanner, was born in Frederick County, Md., January 22, 1825.

FIRST SETTLEMENTS OF GERMANS IN MARYLAND—THE GETZENDANNER FAMILY.

Christian Getzendanner, or, as sometimes found in the old records, Kitchadauner, was born in Switzerland, but took up his residence in Schiefferstadt, Germany, where, in 1723, he met and married Ann Barbara Brunner. In 1729 he came with the Brunner family to America, landing in Philadelphia, Pa., September 15, (See Rupp's 30,000 names, page 16, in the Library in Harrisburg, Pa.) and settled about two miles west of the spot where the city of Frederick was afterwards laid out. He purchased from the Indians, a tract of 3000 acres extending from the foot of the mountains, where Fairview now stands, easterly towards the Monocacy River. Mr. Getzendanner relied upon the title obtained from the Indians, but, ascertaining that a Mr. O'Neal had obtained a patent for about 1000 acres on the eastern part of his land, his eyes were opened to the necessity of obtaining a better title to his possessions. He accordingly applied for a patent and, on April 17, 1754, succeeded in securing a patent for 930 acres, on a part of which his original settlement had been made. The first house, which was built of logs, stood until about thirty years ago. The descendants of Mr. Getzen-danner intermarried with the families Schleys, Kemps and Buckeys. Christendanner died in 1766, bequeathing to his son, Adam.

Adam Getzendanner died in 1783, and will divided his land among his three John, Christian, and Jacob.

John Getzendanner, the great-grandfather, Mrs. E. D. Shriner, who was the eldest, ing the part on which his father resided his death, in 1811, he divided his land "Adam's Content," among his three Johnathan, Daniel and Abraham.

Johnathan Getzendanner was married Elizabeth, daughter of John Derr. Dr. W. Getzendanner, of Middletown, Md., grandson, and Dr. Harvey Getzendanner, Frederick, Md., the great-grandson of Johnathan and Elizabeth (Derr) Getzendanner.

Abraham Getzendanner was married to daughter of Peter Buckey. These brothers large families, but their descendants, with exceptions, left Frederick County and in other parts of Maryland, Virginia, and ers of the Southern and Western States.

Daniel Getzendanner was married to daughter of John Derr and a sister of beth Derr (Mrs. Johnathan Getzendanner). Their eldest son, Edward T. Getzendanner, great-great-grandson of the original Christian Getzendanner, spent his whole farming. In politics, he was a life-long Democrat. In religion, he was a member of the Reformed Church. Edward T. Getzendanner was married to Catharine Schaeffer. Their children are: 1, Annie Mary, died July 1864; 2, Mrs. Nelson Diehl, of Frederick Winton; 4, Daniel J., died May 19, 1885; William Reese, resides in Montgomery County, Md.; 6, Addie, the wife of Dr. Barrick, of ark, Ohio; 7, Nannie May (Mrs. Edward Shriner), of Frederick County, Md. Mr. Getzendanner died at his farm near Poolesville, Md., February 14, 1897.

JOHN FRANKLIN DAVIS, who spent his active years following the vocation of a farmer, is now living retired at "Sunnyside" farm, Urbana district, which place contains 153 acres. He was born on his father's farm in Market District, near Pleasant Grove Church, March 10, 1844. His parents were Eli and Rachel (Morsell) Davis.

Mr. Davis became a pupil at the Pleasant Grove public school at the age of six. His instructors were Basil Williams, Lucinda Williams, Mr. Prather, and Rufus K. Day. W.

HUSBAND Joseph T GARRISON-42 19371

NOTES:
Joseph T. Garrison was a son of James [Caleb] and Catherine (Katie Morgan). He was born in Franklin County (now Banks) Georgia about 1814. He was first married 18 Mar 1838 to Mary (Polly) G. Iler, born about 1822 in Georgia. Sometime before 1850 Joseph and Katie moved to Elbert Co. Georgia apparently they rented a farm as no real estate value was given. In 1860 they were living in Jackson County, Georgia; he was listed in the census as a farmer [middle initial printed as F] with real estate valued at $1000 and personal property as $850; his mother listed as Catherine Garrison, age 70, born in Georgia (unlikely), was living with them. The 1870 census found them still in Jackson Co. with a Jefferson, Georgia post office address; he was farming with real property worth $800 and personal $500. The year 1880 census found them in Miller's District, 455th GMD of Jackson County, living with them was a 17 year old daughter Mary E.F. Garrison whose birth (ca 1863) and name do not fit the list and a 9 year old grandson William W.L.O. Garrison who is not further identified. At age 73, that is about 1887, he married a second time. His wife's name is unknown. He died three years later, about 1890, in Texas, probably at McKinney where two of his children settled.

WIFE Mary (Polly) G ILER-43 19370

CHILD 1 John Evans GARRISON-44 50109

OTHER MARRIAGES:

Allie DUNN-347 (MRIN:100)
Married: Aft 1898

NOTES:

John enlisted as a private in the Confederate Army on 15 May 1862 in Co. G (called a various times the Oconee Volunteers, and the Jackson Rifles), 16th Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry. He was reported absent without leave on 31 Aug 1864. There is no further record in his file. He was twice married. His first wife was Narcissus Scott, born about 1843 in Georgia. They were married 28 Mar 1860 and were living with his parents in Jackson County, Georgia when the census was taken that year. By the time of the 1870 census they had their own place valued at $1100 with personal property worth $200; John was a carpenter, only one child (not twins) called Babe listed as born Jan 1870 and the 1880 census showed Octavia born 1872. That year their location was in Miller's District, 455 GMD of Jackson County, Georgia. Narcissus died 19 Dec. 1898 and John married secondly Allie Dunn of Notasulga, AL.

CHILD 2 James C GARRISON-30 49935

NOTES:

James was a private in CO "G", Georgia Infantry during the Cival War. He was a volunteer and enlisted in Capt. Thompson's Company on July 20, 1861. He was captured at Knoxville, TN Dec. 6, 1863. Released to City Guards Dec. 12, 1863. He was listed as a prisoner of war on Roll dated Jan. 30, 1865. No later record. Service record is on file. In early 1880's he migrated to Texas with his wife, 2 dau, 2 sons. In 1870 census he was working as a farm laborer with personal property worth $100. The 1880 census called him a farmer and listed him with Miller's District, 455th GMD, Jackson County.

CHILD 3 David William GARRISON-46 50111

OTHER MARRIAGES:

Fannie MEDLIN-349 (MRIN:102)

NOTES:

David had two wives: Fanny Medlin born 16 Oct 1855, died 25 Feb 1925 and Anna born 28 Nov 1849, died 18 May 1903. Both are buried at Dry Pond Methodist Church in Jefferson, GA. His nickname was "CAP". One of his daughters married ----Prickett, a prosperous farmer of Dry Pond community, devout Methodist. David was a Captain in the Confederate Army in Capt. Garrison's Company, Georgia Infantry (Ogeechee Minute Men). He may have taken the OATH 9-12-1863.

CHILD 4 Mary H GARRISON-47 50113

CHILD 5 Sarah E GARRISON-48 50115

CHILD 6 Levi (Levy) P GARRISON-49 50116

NOTES:

When 1880 Census was taken family was living in Miller's District, 455th GMD, Jackson County, Georgia.

CHILD 7 [Andrew] Jackson O. GARRISON-50 50118

NOTES:

He was listed as a child in the 1860 Census as Jackson O. or perhaps Jackson A. In 1880 he was heading his own household as Jack O. Garrison, age given incorrectly as 20 years, no occupation given. He moved west it is said to have died at McKinney, Texas, at a ripe old age. In the census his wife's name looked like Araner, born in Georgia. Perhaps the name was Irene or something that mispronounced sounded like Araner. In an obit. published in the Jackson Co. paper in May 1939 a man who probably was this one named Joseph Andrew Garrison (J.A.) died April 23 at his home in McKinney Texas. The McKinney Examiner says "Another of McKinney's best loved older citizens has been called away. This time death came to J.A. Garrison, age 83, who had been in failing health for several years, but he was confined to his bed only a few days, having suffered a heart attack. And that was the immediate cause of his death Sunday afternoon at his home 501 North Oak St. "Joseph Andrew Garrison was born Dec. 18, 1855, in Jefferson, Jackson Co. Georgia. He was the son of Joseph T. and Mollie Iler Garrison of that state, being one of a large family and was the last of his seven brothers and sisters to pass away. "When 21 years of age he came to Collin Co., located in the Milwood community in the SE part of the county, where he took an active interest in political affairs until his health began to fail. At one time he was engaged in the insurance business and for several seasons was bookkeeper at gins in Frisco and elsewhere in the county. He was also in the real estate business for several years. He was active in the Masonic lodge here for a number of years. "Mr. Garrison was unostentatious and a quiet disposition. He was held in the highest esteem by a multitude of friends. He enjoyed mingling with his friends and spend many happy hours with them on the court house plaza, where our elderly, retired men often sit to enjoy each other in social chats. He was firm in his convictions and kindly to everyone. We shall all miss him. "Mr. Garrison is survived by his wife, the former Miss Ethel King of Celina. To their union one child was born, a daughter, Mrs. Virgil Hines of this city. "Several children survive by a former marriage as follows: Chester Garrison, Mrs. Mary Rice, Mrs. Cora Whitney, all of Ivanhoe, Ca. Hugh Garrison of Fresno, Ca., Reuben L. Garrison of San Antonio, Sidney A. Garrison of Shamrock, Tx. One step daughter Miss Ellen Shaver of this city as well as 13 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Several nephews and nieces. One son Hershel Garrison preceded him in death several years ago in California.

NOTES:
John was cremated in California and ashes sent to his second wife's family plot in Jefferson Iowa (Ella Lou Lawton). Plot of William & Harvey Lawton.
He left Linwood, Tennessee in the 1890's "because everyone was dying" and moved to McKinney, Collin Co. Texas. He probably was not the father of Esther's eldest child Opal Marie, but she was never informed about that until her niece B. Jean discovered the marriage certificate dated November 1900, O. Marie was born in April 1900 (she is still living in 1999 in Florida)
John moved to California after the death of his wife Esther.

Dear J.J.,
Please help me find the answer=20 to my brain tickler. Once, years ago, I heard the scientific name of the mirrored, revolving ball that hangs suspended from the ceiling=20 in ballrooms (and now at disco dances). It reflects light = beams=20 directed at it from different points around the room and as it=20 revolves it gives the illusion of lights dancing all around the room. This is driving me goofy. Thank = you.
J.S.
The=20 device you're referring to is a disco ball, for want of a technical term. Before the days of Studio 54 and Saturday Night=20 Fever, it was simply called a "mirror ball"—which is = also the term=20 used to describe modern-day reflective orbital satellites, which are=20 similarly shaped.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REUNION OF THE EILER FAMILY
Ann Hartley Grove, near Annapolis, Ind)
BRIEF SUMMARY OF FAMILY BACKGROUND
Aug. 2, 1942

I. HOW IS THE NAME TO BE SPELLED?

A. SWISS FORM: EULER. (Pronounced OYLER or ILER)

a. Ernest Drum, genealogist, Zweibrücken, Palatinate, said in 1938 communication that all our family by any name started in Switzerland and some of them are still there. Others came down the Rhine and later scattered over Germany and to the New World at various dates.

B. GERMAN FORM: EILER. (Pronounced OYLER or ILER)

a. There is an ILER river in Bavaria, but EILER is the correct form.

C. AMERICAN FORM: EILER, EILAR, EYLER, OYLER, ILER, UHLER.

a. There is an EYLER VALLEY and the old EYLER HOMESTEAD out the Great Road from Emmitt to Frederick, Md., says E. Ralston Goldsborough, Rm. 2, Pythian Castle Bldg, Frederick, Maryland.

b. Our own ancestor, according to our best recorded information, signed his name CONRAD EILER, but it appears in legals as EYLER and in some church records as EULER.

II. WHY DID WE COME TO AMERICA?

A. FREEDOM OF WORSHIP.

a. Sept. 15, 1729, Alexander Mack brought 126 Palatines on the Ship Allen from Rotterdam, via Cowes. They were Brethren, Dunkards, or German Baptists escaping religious persecution. They settled in Pennsylvania near the Maryland state line and became law-abiding, religious, peace-loving people. They owned land and followed the trades they had learned in the Old Country.

b. In this group were Conrad Eiler, his family, including Jacob and Valentine, his neighbors, the Sniders, Arnors, Weigles, Culpes, etc.

c. In 1738 Conrad Eiler and sons Jacob and Valentine took out warrants for 200 acres, each, of land, at Digg's Choice. This land crossed disputed state lines and was partly in Maryland.

d. In 1740 JACOB EULER sponsored the first Lutheran Baptism. The name was given the original Swiss spelling by Rev. Casper Stover, who knew the family background intimately.

e. In 1771 VALENTINE EILER and wife SUSANNAH EILER bought a tract of land known as Muddy Spring of Daniel Cooper, near Iler's Character, in Maryland, Frederick County.

f. In 1772 VALENTINE EILER and wife SUSANNAH EILER sold this land, on the request of a Conrad Oiller.

g. Valentine and wife were members of the Brethern Church in colonial days, says the History of the Brethren Church. Susannah Eiler's headstone says she died in 1838 and had been a member of the German Baptist Church for 75 years.

III. MIGRATION TO CANADA IN THE WINTER OF 1779:

A. FREEDOM OF WORSHIP AGAIN THE MOTIVE.

a. The Detroit Library gives among the first settlers on Gros Isle a JACOB EILER. He was married and migrated with family and neighbors.

b. "OUR ANCESTORS" by Homer Eiler, 1512 Grove Ave., Topeka, Kansas, says little is known of Jacob's origin, but 'he was very religious, a Lutheran, and a Potter by trade.'

c. We seem on sure ground when we assume that this JACOB EILER was the JACOB EYLER of the 1729 migration and the 1738 land grant, and oldest son of CONRAD EILER.

d. We know that our VALENTINE EILER, whose wife was Susannah Culp, went to Gros Isle in 1779 because as a member of the Brethren Church in colonial days he had remained true to his peace principles and was persecuted by neighbors who thought he should take up arms.

e. In the group who went to Canada were the Eilers, Sniders, Arnors, Weigles, and others. Here SAMUEL EILER was born in 1791.

(34) (13)

IV. VALENTINE RETURNS TO THE STATES IN 1796:

A. DAYTON in 1796:

- a. The History of Mad River Township, Dayton, Ohio, says Daniel Cooper paid taxes for his miller, Valentine Cyler.
- b. "Valentine Cyler was a NATIVE of Maryland (i.e., native means place of birth) and during the Revolution he was a Tory and fled to Canada. In 1796 he came to Dayton, settled on Section 21, known as the Mary Woodman Farm, and raised a family." "He was miller for Daniel Cooper and helped build the first Courthouse in Dayton."
- Valentine Eiler was born Feb. 14, 1746 and died Dec. 13, 1813. His name is spelled VALENTINE EILER in his will, but it is spelled FELTY CYLER in Ohio Pioneers.
- c. "Two Centuries of the Brethren Church" says:
"Most of the colonial Brethren were land-loving and land-owning people. They were people who attended to their own business and did not participate in movements such as the Revolution. During the Revolution their faith as to non-resistance was put to a severe test. The utterly groundless charge was made by neighbors that their reluctance to take up arms was loyalty to England. Some were persecuted beyond endurance of highly strung nature and they moved deeper into the frontier."
- d. The fact that our own VALENTINE EILER, father of Sammy Eiler, and direct forbear of most of the members of this reunion, came back in 1796 to the United States, remaining in Colchester Twp., Ontario, Canada, near Detroit only 16 years shows that his motive for leaving his native state, Maryland, or Diggs Choice, on the state line, was NOT loyalty to England.
- e. Our SAMUEL EILER who was born on Gros Isle in March, 1791, married Susannah Snider in 1811 and moved in 1823 to Hagerstown, Indiana. He was deacon in the Brethren Church for 75 years. He died in 1875 and is buried at the Hagerstown Nettle Creek Church of the Brethren, on his old homestead. His mother, Susannah Culp Eiler is also buried there. His father, Valentine Eiler, is buried at Dayton, Ohio.
- f. There is no doubt about our direct connection with the Canadian Eiler Family. A letter dated 1837 from David Eiler to his 'Uncle Samuel and Aunt Susannah' says his father would love to see his old mother before she died. In the spring of 1838 another letter states that his father (Jacob Eiler, son of ~~the same family~~ Valentine and brother of Samuel) was grieved to hear of the death of his old mother, Susannah Culp Eiler, who, as we have said, died that winter.

V. "OUR ANCESTORS" by Homer Eiler, 1518 Grove Ave, Topeka, Kans.

- A. His line came over about 1800. Three brothers, Conrad, Jacob, and another brother were in this group.
- B. There have been many migrations of the old, original stock from Switzerland and the Rhineland, but it is now clear about our common origin.
- C. All records verify the assumption that in the main the EILER FAMILY is good stock, law-abiding, given to church affairs, domestic in their tastes, interested in public affairs but not ambitious to assume public office or great power. Many are professional and business men and women; others farmers.

V. CHURCH RECORD OF THE FAMILY:

- a. The first Eiler by name to come to America is pretty well known; Conrad Eiler, wife Margaret, and his family.
- b. They came as members of the Dunkard (Brethren) Church, with Alexander Mack, in 1729, on the Ship Allen, from Rotterdam, via Cowes, ship master Jas. Craigie. They arrived Sept. 15, 1729. They were Palatinates escaping religious coercion.
- c. In York (earlier Lancaster County), Brethren or Baptist congregations were located at Little Conewago in 1738; at Big Conewago in 1741; at Codorus in 1758. There were 800 Brethren in America at the opening of the Revolutionary War. "They were a group that attended to their own business, did not take part in movements such as the Revolution, and for this were often misunderstood and persecuted by their neighbors." Thus they were not Tories but just non-combatants. As an Uncle, Sonj. William, used to say "They owned a whole county along some river in the east and were satisfied with existing conditions." But we know that many of the family in America at that time did take active part in the War on the side of the colonists.
- d. Two Centuries of the Church of the Brethren says: "Most of the colonial Brethren were land-loving, landowning people. During the Revolution their faith as to non-resistance was put to a severe test. The utterly groundless charge was made that their reluctance to go to war was due to loyalty to England. This was not true at all. Some were persecuted beyond endurance of highly strung nature and moved deeper into the Frontier."
- e. The early Brethren and Lutherans were closely associated. Casper Stoeffer and Peter Muhlenburg baptised many into the Lutheran Church. Jacob Eiler, (Euler in church records), sponsored such a baptism in 1742. IF HE HAD A SON VALENTINE BORN Feb. 14 (8) 1745, who later married Susannah Culp, born 1747, we have our own family line set up to 1729. WE NEED TO GET THE NAMES OF THE CHILDREN OF JACOB EYLER, son of CONRAD EYLER, of the land grant of 1738. Mr. Goldsborough, or Lottie Bausman of Lancaster, Penn., of "The Historical Society of York Co., 225 E. Market, St., York, Pa. could get this data.
- c. Our own Susannah Culp Eiler is buried at the Hagerstown, Ind., Church of the Brethren, in 1838, aged 91 years; "for 75 years a member of the German Baptist Church," says her tombstone.

VI: EUROPEAN BACKGROUND OF THE FAMILY:

- a. SWISS ORIGIN: name spelled EULER. Pronounced OI, EI, I. Ernest Drumm, genealogist, in 1938, Zweiburcken, Palatinat.
 - b. RHINE RIVER MIGRATION about 1600:
 1. Basel, Switzerland records may reveal primitive data.
 2. Some member of the family came down the Rhine River and stayed sometimes at the 'House of the Princes'. From there they migrated over the German Empire and many came to Amer.
 3. German spelling of the name is EILER: but there is a river in Germany called the ILLER RIVER.
 - c. One history of the Brethren Church states that Valentine Eiler was born in Germany and came to this country from there. This would wreck, perhaps, our connection with Conrad Eiler of 1729, had similarity of names, locations, church affiliation, and family records point almost irrevocably to this connection. Valentine's father, Jacob of the 1738 land grant, was born in Germany. (See Penn. Archives, 3rd series, Vol. xxiv, p. 399)

- Note: 1. The wrinkled ship list of Sept. 15, 1729, has been copied many times. The Strassburgers Ship List 10A makes out the name as Conrat Iller. illegib
2. Ship List 10B makes it out as Cunrad Oell.. (Last ~~part~~ illegib
3. Rupp's 30,000 Swiss-German Immigrants makes it out to be Conrad Eill..... (Last part of name ~~xxxx~~ illegible)
4. Right under this last name is that of Alexander Mack, sponsor of the party and of the Brethren (Dunkard) Church
5. Here is the way a photostatic copy looks. I have seen it:

Conrad E. Eiler

The German E could be taken as an O by one not familiar with German script. The letter 'd' at the end of Conrad could be taken for an 't'. The second 'e' and closing 'r' could be mis-read.

6. Julian Boyd, Librarian, Penn., rules out 1704 date of old family paper, and makes it read definitely 1784.
7. Our Valentine's name is spelled Valentine Eiler in his will at Dayton, where he died Dec. 13, 1813. But in record there it appears at times as Felty Oyler. Mr. Goldsborough thinks he was born at Monococoy, old German settlement below
Dicks Choice. at that time in Maryland (his NATIVE state)

Mr. E. Ralston Goldsborough, C.E.
Rm. 2, Pythian Castle
Frederick. Md.

Dear Mr. Goldsborough,

I shall place a small fee ($5.00) to start off with in the mail Friday, and from time to time send you other amounts as you proceed at a leisurely rate and along with other research, as, if, and when you check into records in surrounding county seats for other families you also keep a weather eye open for our line. Shall send equal amount in two weeks, and more if work and results justify.

You have something, I think, right down our alley, in the deed issued by Valentine Eiler and his wife, Susanna, in 1779. If you can run that individual back to his father, find that this Valentine was born Feb. 8, 1745, and that he married Susanna Culp, both being Dunkards, (German Baptists then), we will be absolutely established. We can then proceed backward and forward to set up connections. We are sure that our Valentine Eiler (also spelled Oyler, Oiler, Iller, Iler, Eyler, Euler, according to the mood of the clerk or preacher, and at times spelled Felty Oyler) left his home diggings about 1779 and went to Gros Isle, Canada, because he felt aggrieved over treatment accorded him because he didn't take up arms for the colonists in their rebellion against the status quo, he being a Dunkard and of peaceful convictions as a member of the Dunkard Church. He stayed near Detroit, on this island, and here his son Samuel, was born (My own great grandfather). In 1796 this Valentine Eiler (Felty Oyler) came down to Dayton, Ohio, to become the miller of the same Daniel Cooper with whom he did business in Maryland, as shown by the deed you mention.

But here are some hurdles;

1. You say deeds were made by Valentine Eiler in 1779; 1784; 1788; wife in 1779 being Susanna, in 1784 Magdalena; in 1788 Mary. Our Felty had just one wife, we hope, and he died in Dayton, Dec. 13, 1813, aged 68 years, and his widow, my great great grandmother, Susanna Culp Eiler, died in 1838, was buried at Hagerstown, Indiana, just east of this city, and her headstone says "She was a member of the German Baptist Church for 75 years." Now these other deeds may have been for other Valentines, for we know there were at least two other Felty Oyler's in the Conrad Eyler line (the one who came on the Ship Allen in 1729). It is possible that our Susanna had a string of middle names and they used them as such. The old family paper which is a receipt given by Benj. Oglie (or Oyler) to Conrad Oiller in 1784, hints at the second date above, but we feel sure of the 1779 date.
2. We are not absolutely certain that we are of the Conrad Eyler (1729) ..Jacob Eyler line, but we feel pretty sure. Our Valentine may have been a lone wolf, coming from the old country by self prior to 1779 but we don't accept that until we have to.

At our family re-union in Rochester, Ind., last week I learned from Dr. C.C. Eyler, that he came from Waynsboro, Penn.

in Franklin County, a few miles above Hagerstown, Md., and there is an Eyler Valley filled with Eylers there, some in Maryland, some in Penn., between Chambersburgh and Gettysburgh, but near the state line. Perhaps a clew exists there as to the Valentine we seek.

Oliver Eiler, now about 80, says he used to hear old Samuel Eiler, his grandfather (born son of Valentine in 1791), that our family originated in Switzerland, and came to Maryland.

Let me briefly recapitulate what we have found, and what may help you establish us:

I. ORIGIN: Switzerland prior to 1450. Name spelled Euler or Von Euler (Leonardo Euler was trigonometric functional discoverer; August Von Euler and Ken Von Euler present day members) All Eilers by name came from this source, and some migrated to the Palatinate about 1500, coming to Zweibmucken, staying at times at the house of the princes according to Ernest Drumm, geneologist of that city. They scattered over the German Empire and to New World.

II. TENTATIVE ARRIVAL IN AMERICA: In Sept., 1729, 50 Dunkard families came in a body to Pennsylvania, with Alexander Mack. In this body were Conrad Eiler, his wife Margaret, children Jacob, Valentine, Elizabeth, Mary, Catherine, Barbara, and the Culps, Sniders, and Beckers, related by marriage to our family in our own records.

A. CONRAD EYLER: (Spelled that way in legal records; Euler in church records. B. in Germany.)
Died in 1751, buried at Arendtsville, near Gettysburgh. He and sons Jacob and Valentine Eyler took out 200 acers each of land by warrant from Penns in 1738.

B. JACOB EYLER: Born in Germany, probably about 1718.
He sponsored a baptism in 1740 or 1743, by the Lutheran minister, Casper Stoeffer (Who knew family well) and the name was spelled EULER (pronounced Oiler).
He moved from Diggs Choice, on disputed line Penn-Md, deep into Maryland. We don't have his line. Think our Valentine, b. Feb. 8, 1745, was his son; this is goal sought- to prove or disprove it by documentary evidence)

VALENTINE EYLER: Younger son of above Conrad Eyler.
Children: Jacob, John, Magdalena, Frederick, Valentine, Katrina, Mary, Christina, Susanna.
Born 1722 in Germany; died 1791; buried Arendtsville; Will at York, Penn.

C. OUR OWN VALENTINE EILER (Born Feb. 8, 1745; place not known, but History of Dayton, Ohio, says 'His native state was Maryland, and the dictionary says NATIVE means where born)

D. SONS: JACOB, who was born at Plum Creek, or lived there, and went to Canada; descendants still there; Will Iler is member Candian Parliament; I have letters from Jacob's children in 1860 to Samuel, calling him Dear Uncle)

SAMUEL: Born 1791. (My greatgrandfather)

E. DANIEL: son of above Samuel.

F. AUGUST VALENTINE EILAR, my father. b. 1864.

G. JESSE HOWARD EILAR, myself. Born 1889.

H. LOTHAIR & HOWARD EILAR, sons of J.H.

Heigh ho- that brings us to a good place to stop, for time
Yours very truly, J.H.EILAR

Data concerning the EILER FAMILY

- I. The family was first charted in Basel, Switzerland, about 1500. All by this name with various spellings came out of Switzerland into the Rhineland, stopping at Zweibrücken, Palatinate, Bavaria, Germany. This information and additional was supplied by Ken Von Euler, son of August Von Euler, current members of the family, and by Ernest Drumm, genealogist, of Zweibrücken.

The original spelling in Switzerland was Euler, which has the umlaut sound of OY or OI. The usual spelling in Germany is EILER, but it also is spelled Iller, there being an Iller River in Europe.

Drumm stated that the family stood well in Germany, being business and professional men. They stopped 'sometimes at the house of the Princes' when they were in Zweibrücken. They scattered all over Germany, many coming to America.

- II. Conrad Eyler (Oiler, Euler) came to Pennsylvania on the Ship Allen, Sept. 15, 1729, with Alexander Mack, Hans Casper Kolb (Culp), Christian Schneider (Snider) and others. With him came his sons Jacob and Valentine, and daughters Mary, Catherine, and Barbara, and wife Elizabeth. He died in 1751 and is buried at Arendtsville, Penn.
- III. Valentine and Conrad Eyler and Jacob Eyler took out grants for 200 acres each of land in Lancaster County, in 1738 by warrant, at Digges Choice, near Hanover, York and Gettysburgh. In the same settlement were the Schneiders, Culps, and others later related by marriage. In 1740 Jacob Euler (Eyler) sponsored a baptism, the first Lutheran Baptism in that community. (Penn Archives, 3rd series, Vol. XXIV, p. 399)
- IV. Jacob Eyler went later with family farther into Maryland, Frederick County, beyond Digges Choice.

Valentine Oyler (Eyler) raised a family in York or Adams County, Penn., and died and is buried at Arendtsville, having died in 1792. His children were Jacob, John, Magdalena, Frederick, Valentine, Katrina, Mary, Christiana, and Susanna.

- V. NOW HERE IS MY OWN KNOWN PERSONAL STORE OF FACTS FROM FAMILY PAPERS IN MY POSSESSION:

1. My great-great-great grandfather was Valentine Oyler (Spelled also Eyler and Eiler), and his wife was Susannah Culp. He was born, supposedly, in Maryland or Germany, Feb. 8, 1745, and Susanna Culp was born in 1747. He is buried at Dayton, Ohio, died 1813, leaving in will name Valentine EILER. His wife Susanna came to Hagerstown, Ind., with youngest son Samuel, and died March 27, 1838, and is buried at Hagerstown, Ind. Her headstone says she was a member of the German Baptist Church for 75 years.
2. The history of Mad River Twp, Dayton, Ohio, shows that

'Valentine Oyler came from Canada to Dayton, in 1796, and was the miller for Daniel C. Cooper. He lived on the farm of Samuel and Mary Miller Woodman, who had come from Frederick Co., Maryland. During the Revolutionary War he remained loyal to King George and had to flee from his native state Maryland to Gros Isle, Ontario, Canada." But the Dunkard Church records state that he was true to his religious faith along with others and as a result was 'persecuted' and fled to Canada. He was born in Germany, this church record says.
Valentine Eiler (called also Felty Oyler, Oiler, Eyler) married Susannah Culp. (Kolb)

His son Samuel, born in Gros Isle, Colchester Twp, Ontario, Upper Canada, south of Detroit, married Susannah Snider (Schneider). Samuel was born Mar. 11, 1791. He was married by R. Richardson, Esq.
Now here is where you might figure in: Was our Valentine Eiler born in Germany, as the Church history states, or was he born at Digges Choice of German parentage, his father Jacob and grandfather Conrad having been born in Germany?

You see the problem: All data seems to connect us with the Conrad-Jacob Eyler who arrived on Ship Allen, Sept. 15, 1729. The family names, the women they married, etc. emphasize this.

But to date we can't put our fingers on a record that states this connection. If we knew who were the children of Jacob Eyler, who lived at Digges Choice, moved deeper into Maryland, sometime between 1738 and 1780, and who was born in Germany about 1718 and died about 1790 or later, and if we found a Valentine born Feb. 8, 1745, the story would be complete.

If you have overlapping data from the counties that were in Pennsylvania and Maryland during the disputed boundary period, perhaps you could find just that one thing, without the supporting documents being made into transcript. If we find ~~that~~ our Valentine Eyler, whose 'native state was Maryland', born Feb. 8, 1745, and establish place of birth and parentage, then the extra information would be gladly bought. Warning; We find two Felty Oylers in this area, one being no doubt our old Uncle Felty, the other our ancestor. I will be glad to pay you what you consider reasonable just for this information about our Valentine, and later figure on the additional matter for genealogical material.

(P.S. My mother's people were the Robertsons of Virginia and the Allens of Penn and New England and England. My paternal side includes the Smiths of Virginia, straight English. I am more than half British in ancestry and entirely British in sympathy. Our interest in background is academic.)

VI. I have a family paper dated 16th of June, 1784 (or 1704) a receipt for 29 shillings two pence, received from W. Conrad Oiller, in full of acct. I say. Benj. Oglie.
The date looks like 1704 but experts insist it is 1784. Who is this Conrad Oiller? Transaction in Maryland. Guess; Son of Jacob and brother of our Valentine.

Dear Jess:

Hi there, darn glad to hear from you. Yes I can give you almost any information you want on the Eiler, Eilar, and Iler families as it concerns our lineage from Valentine and Susanna Culp. Even beyond that I feel confident of my lineage from Conrad Eyler, Oiller, or Euler.

Conrad died in 1751, intestate, and I have the names of his children and from records when the land was sold. He had a son Valentine and this nam died in 1790, leaving a will of which I have a copy, and all children are mentioned and among them Valentine Jr. who disappeared from the tax rolls in 1880 1780. I also have a copy of Valentine Jr. will leaving all his estate to his wife Susanna, This will made April 18th 1813. Valentine made his mark, but it is signed Valentine Eiler. In recording the will in one place the name is spelled Eyler. The ILERS in Canada say Jacob came from Pennsylvania about 1790, and as you know there is no doubt as to the relation of this family to us. Jess, do the EILERS think that these people up there are not related to us?

I visited these people, saw the island where Samuel was born, saw where Susanna Snider was born, and the Snider homestead where they were married. All the people mentioned in those letters are, and were known to the Ilers of Canada, and were related. Jacob had a pretty hard time getting into Canada. He loaded his sleigh with house hold things and children and crossed the ice, and was arrested and sent back to the island, later he did the same thing and got by with it.

I still have work to do on the family from the Valentine we know on back, but from Valentine and Susanna Culp I have practically everyone charted and dated, not only the decendents of the male lines but of the female lines. The Richardson family is not complete but enough that I could write my book. This has been a busy year for me and I have not done so much on the family tree, however this winter I expect to make the final effort. Now to your letter.

John Monroe EILAR, son of Benjamine and Rebecca Laudig EILAR was born on the Eilar homestead near Hagerstown Ind. April 19 1855, He married Mary Jane Raber Nov. 12 1886. Mary Jane Raber was born May 15 1869, and died Aug. 11 1911. To them was born six children four of which are living, I have all their dates, who they married, and all decendents. The youngest son, John, was born in 1908 and was adopted by people by the name of Brooks who moved East and John was lost to his people. I located him in Tennessee and have his picture and names and dated of his family.

DR. J. S. EILAR
DENTAL SURGEON
512 FIRST NAT'L BANK BLDG.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.

I have a lot of letters from the daughter of John, as well as letters from the sons. ~~My last letter from Ella last Christmas.~~

John evidently wasn't so thrifty, he has been in a home for some time and was just waiting to get his old age pension so, that he could visit his daughter and my last letter from Ella, his daughter, said he would soon get it. They do not have the bible, if they had it at any time, it is now lost so far as any of them know.

Oliver Cornelius of Noblesville shared in the estate of Aunt Het. and I talked to him for an hour or so last year but he could not remember seeing the bible. Now you might drive over to Noblesville and see him again and perhaps find it as you say in some attic.

As to Anna Hartley; yes I know her well, that is she knows me better than I know her. Her husband built fence for my Dad years ago. I visited her last year, and have a lot of pictures of the different members of the Eilar family she gave me. I search that old Bible carefully and noted everything you mention, I feel sure that your Dad and Bill got their information from this book for it is the Susannah Snider Bible.

Our name is a mess to be sure, and we can ^{gamble} ~~gamble~~ that it is either Eiler, or Euler, but not EILAR. I have spent hours and hours of time and plenty of money on this and evidence all ~~points~~ points to the Conrad of the land grant and EULER. I searched the records of ships from 1727 to 1775, a total of 29,900 names, libraries and church records of Penn, and certainly have a complete understanding of conditions that existed at this early period. Last year I spent several days among records and people from whence our family came. One family was claiming decendency from Valentine Jr. ~~but~~ and he has a pretty complete record, but as a lot of people do he was not at the bottom and had not looked at dates and was completely lost. The great grandfather with which he started was Valentino Oyler. Valentine Oiler or Eiler, having had a son Valentine this man took himm for the Valentino of ^{his} family. Now Valentine ~~died~~ died in 1790, and is the one who left the will, and yet this man connected his Valentino with Valentine and his records show that Valentino was not born until 1796. Therefore his line could not be of Valentine, but from all indications come from the brother Jacob. I still contend our Valentine is the Valentine of the old will and since the first Valentine ~~left~~ died in 1790, and our Valentine and Jacob seem to have left Penn, in this year it is more convincing. Jacob another son of Valentine Ist. was made administrator of the will, which is another reason for me believeing that our Val. had been away from home and then came back and moved his family with him to Gross Isle, after the death of his father. It is possible that Valentine EILER came over to this country after 1775, but why the receipt to Conrad Oiller, in English and in our possession, certainly this belongs in the family, no one just handed it to us. Do the people who have seen this doubt this, just what do they say?

The first time I saw Clarence Eiler he began telling me a line so I closed my records and let it go. Truly this is an academic problem and must be handled as such, and that is the way I have done all my work, there has been no guess work, but there is one loop hole, a definite tie between the Valentines. I feel sure I can do this, for all evidence points that there is no doubt, even the people who went to Canada and are related to the Eilers there, have the same names as those found in the same locality from whence I have traced our Family.

I have so darn much- many records, dates and references that I wish you were here so that I could go over them and show you why I am so cock sure of what I have done. One more thing and then I must go to work. To begin, our family at first was Luthern, which corresponds with Hans, and Sten Von Euler. I searched the records of the two oldest churches, the one on the Codorod, and the one on the Conewago, and what do I find. On the Conewago, first baptismal record, Jacob Euler, sons born May 1743, baptised 1743 and I have the names of the witnesses. Oct. 3 1747 a daughter Magdalena born to Valentine Euler, Baptised May, 27 1748. In the will of the Valentine Ist, Magdalena is mentioned as a sister of Valentine JR. And now, May 9 1774, a son ~~Valentine~~ Valentine, born to Valentin Anspack and wife, and the Witness to the baptism was VALENTINE EULER JR. dated June 26 1774. After ~~1774~~ 1776, this family of EULERS do not appear in baptismal records, and why?

As I stated before Conrad died in 1751, leaving no will. In 1763, Valentine his son bought the interests of the other children in the original grant of 1738, and it states that this is the land on which Valentine lives. I have the records. In 1776, Feb. 6, Valentine sold this land to Micheal Hare. So they moved te- back farther into the woods, and in 1778 we find Valentine Ist. taking up land again, he being on th tax list as a land owner, and our Valentine, or Valentine Jr. being listed as married but not owning land, from 1779 to 1781, and then lost from the tax rolls of this part. Everthing so far so good.

Now Jess, on my trip I located another Plum Creek in Penn, and to my surprise it was first settled by Dunkards or Germen Baptists. this splace is only a few miles from the first settlement, and the Eilers of canada say their Jacob came from Plumb creek in Penn. I stoped at the church and talked to some old people there, but I have been so busy I have not traced down what I learned from them. I feel sure I will find our Valentine and the Sniders coming from this settlement.

I could write you about this all day but people are waiting for me and I must go to work. I have the records on what I say, tell me what the people of the family think of what we are doing.

Sylbert.

P.S. In the will of Valentine Ist, he made his mark but the signature is Valentine Oiler. And the old Pennsylvania Dutch still say Oiler and Eiler and mean the same pearson. Those baptismal records were in German and translated.

Dear Laverne:

Thank you for the family group sheets on your dad and mother, and you and your husband.

I have added them to my group of Oyler families.

As you may know our ancestor Conrad Euler, or Eyler, or Eilar, or Cyler was born between 1675 to 1690 we think in Maar, near Lauterback Germany, he married a lady with first name of Margaret, and came to America in Sept 1729 with a ship load of members of the Church of the Brethren, or Dunkards, or Old Order of German Baptis. He brought a wife, two sons, and four daughters.

In 1751 he died in York Co Pa, near village of Hanover Pa a little south of Gettysburg Pa. His Son Valentine born in 1722 in Germany bought the rest of his brothers and sisters rights to the estate, as Valentine was living on the farm. Valentine is our ancestor.

Valentine married twice, first time to Miss Gelick and to Susanna, he had 10 children, and died in York Co Pa in 1790.

His son our ancestor Valentine #2 was born 1754 in same county, married about 1781 to Mary "Molly" Arndt, they had about 2 or 3 children in Pa, then moved for short time to Maryland just south of the Pa line. There our ancestor Frederick was born 1785. Valentine and Mary Molly moved to Franklin Co Va about 1788 where he bought property, we have copies of the court purchase record. He had a total of 8 children. We have copies of his will and a letter his wife Mary Molly wrote the children when Valentine died in 1825. Mary died in 1833, we think they are buried on the farm they owned.

Our ancestor Frederick married Nancy Cochran in 1808 in Franklin Co Va, Frederick bought a farm from his brother in law John Dame in 1810, John married Elizabeth Oyler. Frederick and Nancy had 2 children in Va John born about 1812 and Mary "Polly" born about 1813, then they and John and Elizabeth Dame moved to Marion Co Tenn, near Chattanooga about 1814, there another son was born in 1814 Frederick Jr, who died about 1843. Their other children were our great grandfather born 1816, Andrew born 1818, Elizabeth 1820, Nancy 1826 and Valentine 1829. Frederick was in the war of 1812 for a few months, he owned according to the court records about 1400 acres of land at one time or another.

Our great grandfather Daniel married Jemima Smith from Kentucky about 1835 and had one son John in Tenn born 1837, then they moved to Dekalb Co Ala where they had 12 more children, Jemima died shortly after your grandfather Andrew was born, and Daniel married again and had one more daughter born 1859.

During the civil war, Daniel and his sons, Frederick, Smith, George, James and William all enlisted in Company H of the 21st Georgia Volunteer Infantry. One son was killed that was William at the 2nd battle of Bull Run in 1862 August.

After the war Uncle Smith came to Buckhart Twp about 1865 and your grandfather Andrew and my grandfather Jems came in 1869, and you know most of the rest.

Thanks W. Monroe Oyler

Dear Mr. Zahn,

I was delighted to receive your letter with the very fine Eyler material in it. My inquiry was for the Historical Society but as I read the information you gave me I discovered a choice bit for my own family history.

My great-great-grandfather, Henry Smith, (Heinrich Schmidt) who came to this country in 1730 had a daughter, Catharina, who married Anthony Oeler, his will (made Je 25, 1771) states.

I surely would like to know the history of these migrations of York County people into Virginia and North Carolina. Do you know of any history of these exoduses?

I have made abstracts of the Eyler deeds (releases) you expressed a wish for, the will of Valentine Eyler and also of the Jacob Berlin, Senr. will which I just happened upon without seeking for it.

Here they are:-

DEEDS

- F, 508 D 1, 1763 Jacob Eyler, of Manheim T-, carpenter, one of the sons of Conrad Eyler, late of Lancaster County, deceased: to Valentine Eyler of the same place: for £0.5.0; assigns his share or purport of, in, or to the tract of land granted unto the aforesaid Conrad Eyler by warrant dated October 3, 1738, on a branch of Codorus Creek on the west side of Susquehannah River then part of Lancaster Co., now in the township of Manheim, York Co., whereon Valentine now dwells, subject to the payment of the purchase money, interest and quitrent.
